Poetry And Quotes A New Perspective 2014-05-24 providing a framework for scholars and students in the field of organizational studies this book presents a comprehensive review of the literature related to multinational and multicultural teams an overview of the specific model driving our thinking along with an extensive description of the component parts the individual and group level elements of teams and their members the linking processes that connect various elements and structures the catalysts that give rise to changes in various elements and structures described in the theory section and a general integration of the model and an application of this framework for understanding mnts in diverse cultural contexts

The Anglican Tradition from a Postcolonial Perspective 2023-10-17 in terms of the south african constitution of 1996 there is a general need for an introduction to comparative law and one that covers what is technically known as applied comparative law more particularly applied comparative law that involves a study of the bills of rights in other countries

Psychology 1975 the purpose of this book is to combine perspectives of scholars from africa on child theology from a variety of theological sub disciplines to provide some theological and ministerial perspectives on this topic the book disseminates original research and new developments in this study field especially as relevant to the african context in the process it addresses also the global need to hear voices from africa in this academic field it aims to convey the importance of considering africa s children in theologising the different chapters represent diverse methodologies but the central and common focus is to approach the subject from the viewpoint of africa s children the individual authors varied theological sub disciplinary dispositions contribute to the unique and distinct character of the book almost all chapters are theoretical orientated with less empirical but more qualitative research although some of the chapters refer to empirical research that the authors have performed in the past most of the academic literature in the field of child theologies is from american or british european origin the african context is fairly absent in this discourse although it is the youngest continent and presents unique and relevant challenges this book was written by theological scholars from africa focussing on africa s children it addresses not only theoretical challenges in this field but also provides theological perspectives for ministry with children and for important social change written from a variety of theological sub disciplines the book is aimed at scholars across theological sub disciplines especially those theological scholars interested in the intersections between theology childhood studies and african cultural or social themes it addresses themes and provides insights that are also relevant for specialist leaders and professionals in this field no part of the book was plagiarised from another publication or published elsewhere

Internal Alchemy 2014-08-28 in the wake of socialism's demise and liberalism's loss of direction new ideas are needed for the next major realignment of the social and political domain making a unique contribution to the idea of the commons this book offers a radical form of direct democracy with real world implications but whereas much of the current scholarship has looked at the commons from the perspective of governance this book instead focuses on commoning as social practice perspectives on commoning argues that the commons are not just resources external to us but are a function or characterisation of what we do thus we can talk of the act of commoning positioning our behaviour beyond the domains of the private and the public beyond the dichotomy of capitalism versus socialism covering everything from biopolitics to urban spaces this impressive range of international contributors address the commons as both theory and history providing a useful review of current conceptions as well as practical proposals for the future a unique consolidation of philosophy sociology and economics the book shows how a new understanding of the commons as practice will help to achieve its full emancipatory potential

International Perspectives on Early Childhood Education and Care 2013-02-16 debates on historical and contemporary racism have recently become the subject of increasing public interest the black lives matter movement as well as the covid 19 pandemic have underlined the importance and urgent necessity of examining racism in society from a multidisciplinary angle the many facets of racism in the past and present also challenge the way we deal with history historical culture in a globalized world rather than focusing on the history of ideas and its discursive development this volume will focus on the practices of actors it examines how and which practices especially practices of comparing are constitutive in the construction of race and manifestations of racism this edited volume brings together interdisciplinary contributions from history sociology political science american studies literary studies and media studies an important focus lies on the social asymmetries created by racialization including inequalities and violence the chapters foreground historical and contemporary practices of racism and discuss their appearance in different epochs and locations
