this book examines why when the conflict in eastern ukraine began in 2014 fighting broke out in the donets k region whereas it did not in kharkiv city despite the city like the donets k region being geographically proximate to russia and similar in ethnic and linguistic make up based on extensive original research the book argues that a key factor was the nature and behaviour of local elites with those in kharkiv having diffuse ties to the centre and therefore being more capable of adapting to sudden profound regime change at the centre whereas the elites in the donets k region had much more concentrated ties to the centre were dependent on one network and therefore were much less able to cope with change the book thereby demonstrates how crucial for ukraine are patronal politics patronage networks and informal centre region relations and that it was these local political circumstances rather than russia which brought about the conflict carl von clausewitz described the purpose of war as the compulsory submission of the enemy to our will unlike conventional military conflicts of the past war in the information age is more a battle of wills than artillery and doesn't necessarily end with decisive conclusions or clear winners cyber warfare between nations is conducted not only without the consent or participation of citizens but often without their knowledge with little to see in the way of airstrikes and troop movements the weapons are information systems intelligence propaganda and the media the combatants are governments multinational corporations hackers and whistleblowers the battlefields are economies command and control networks election outcomes and the hearts and minds of populations as with Russia's bloodless 2014 annexation of the Crimea the cyberwar is fought before the infantry arrives written by a United States intelligence community insider this book describes the covert aspects of modern wars and the agencies who fund and fight them
