groundbreaking reflection on culture and society alongside four new essays by one of our most respected essayists and critics what is the internet doing to us what is college for what are the myths and metaphors we live by these are the questions that william deresiewicz has been pursuing over the course of his award winning career the end of solitude brings together more than forty of his finest essays including four that are published here for the first time ranging widely across the culture they take up subjects as diverse as mad men and harold bloom the significance of the hipster and the purpose of art drawing on the past they ask how we got where we are scrutinizing the present they seek to understand how we can live more mindfully and freely and they pose two fundamental questions what does it mean to be an individual and how can we sustain our individuality in an age of networks and groups

The End of Solitude 2022-08-23 an essential collection of literary criticism from francis mulhern author of the moment of scrutiny and culture metaculture into the melée collects francis mulhern s insightful critical writing much of it in the hybrid literary form that bagehot described as the review like essay and the essay like review it opens with questions of nationality from f r leavis s efforts to assert a normatively english literary subject and ferdinand mount s exploration of english cultural landscapes to tom nairn s political vision of england and scotland after britain and joe cleary s account of irish modernism another cluster of texts concerns intellectuals and in one way or another the politics of revolution and counter revolution from burke to the present there is an updated sketch of the magazine n 1 as heir to the militant traditions of partisan review what is literature sartre s answer was committed literature the writer as such was of the left but culture and politics are discrepant practices inhabiting one another in permanent tension in its embrace of provisionality and its magpie curiosity mulhern observes the essay is a mode especially well suited to the purposes of a marxist criticism morally committed to the value of being surprised wilde more than ever before we live in a culture that excoriates inactivity and demonizes idleness work connectivity and a constant flow of information are the cultural norms and a permanent busyness pervades even our quietest moments little wonder so many of us are burning out in a culture that tacitly coerces us into blind activity the art of doing nothing is disappearing inactivity can induce lethargy and indifference but is also a condition of imaginative freedom and creativity psychoanalyst josh cohen explores the paradoxical pleasures of inactivity and considers four faces of inertia the burnout the slob the daydreamer and the slacker drawing on his personal experiences and on stories from his consulting room while punctuating his discussions with portraits of figures associated with the different forms of inactivity andy warhol orson welles emily dickinson and david foster wallace cohen gets to the heart of the apathy so many of us feel when faced with the demands of contemporary life and asks how we might live a different and more fulfilled existence

Hipster Culture 2021-07-29 how do novels travel through time how might they endure in a changing world and reach the readers of an unknowable future modernist writers were eager to think of their books as reaching audiences they could not yet imagine in recent years however scholars of modernism have focused on pinning them down putting these books in their context and these authors in their place by looking to the future scholars fear that looking to the future will make literature disengaged irresponsible or apolitical the worry is that literature cannot escape its own moment without also evading the hard truths of history out of context suggests an alternative to this scholarship proposing that literature travels through time not by transcending history but by adapting to historical change the chapters of this book each pair a modernist author with a later reader in each case this future reader is also a novelist someone who reads with an eye to form and craft and who puts what they see to new use in their own novels james baldwin adapts henry james s modes of characterization ngugi wa thiong o repurposes joseph
