English for Life 1 is a comprehensive coursebook for students at the undergraduate level. It has been designed to cater for students' current and future language and communication needs, keeping in view the varying backgrounds and abilities of students entering colleges. The preparatory language skills unit at the beginning of the course attempts to bridge the gaps between the levels of learners. The course adopts an interactive approach and participatory methods. The activity-oriented tasks ensure that the learning process is relevant, interesting, and enjoyable for students. This coursebook introduces each chapter through interactive lead-in exercises, develops reading skills using a range of reading material, offers exercises with varying levels of complexity, enriches vocabulary through extensive glossary and exercises, provides for consolidated learning of grammar and usage, improves interpersonal communication skills, and promotes writing for academic and functional purposes.
