l autrice ci mette davanti ad un cambiamento del comportamento nel rapporto dell umanità nei confronti delle problematiche della pianificazione certo gli umani sono capaci di fare un paesaggio a mano potrebbe addirittura essere una delle più belle maniere di agire sul territorio dalla presentazione di gilles clément fausta occhipinti con paesaggi fatti a mano ci propone un tema ambizioso una sistematica revisione dei metodi e degli strumenti dello studio del paesaggio nell università italiana partendo dall intuizione che sia necessario introdurre una sperimentazione applicata in costante confronto con i corsi teorici e questo nel momento più recessivo della nostra storia recente mentre il nostro paese sta meticolosamente disinvestendo sul paesaggio revocando anche quel poco che si era fatto in particolare nelle scuole di architettura dalla presentazione di franco zagari come si diventa paesaggisti come si insegna il progetto di paesaggio questo ebook indaga il ruolo strategico della didattica di terreno nelle scuole di architettura del paesaggio in europa la ricerca mette in luce la relazione tra la formazione del paesaggista e il suo riconoscimento istituzionale in diversi contesti europei con particolare riferimento a quello italiano e francese ne emerge che la scuola del paesaggio ideale dovrebbe intensificare l interdisciplinarietà applicata a casi reali sperimentando sul campo e orientare il progetto verso una committenza reale migliorando il rapporto tra scuola e istituzioni mondo professionale e società in 1909 the poet filippo tommaso marinetti published the founding manifesto of italian futurism an inflammatory celebration of the love of danger and the beauty of speed that provoked readers to take aggressive action and glorify war the world s only hygiene marinetti s words unleashed an influential artistic and political movement that has since been neglected owing to its exaltation of violence and nationalism its overt manipulation of mass media channels and its associations with fascism inventing futurism is a major reassessment of futurism that reintegrates it into the history of twentieth century avant garde artistic movements countering the standard view of futurism as naïvely bellicose christine poggi argues that futurist artists and writers were far more ambivalent in their responses to the shocks of industrial modernity than marinetti s incendiary pronouncements would suggest she closely examines futurist literature art and politics within the broader context of italian social history revealing a surprisingly powerful undercurrent of anxiety among the futurists toward the accelerated rhythms of urban life the rising influence of the masses changing gender roles and the destructiveness of war poggi traces the movement from its explosive beginnings through its transformations under fascism to offer completely new insights into familiar futurist themes such as the thrill and trauma of velocity the psychology of urban crowds and the fantasy of flesh fused with metal among others lavishly illustrated and unparalleled in scope inventing futurism demonstrates that beneath futurism's belligerent avant garde posturing lay complex and contradictory attitudes toward an always deferred utopian future detention camps exceed the juridical concept of punishment and crime this book comprises two parts 1 a collected volume that discusses camps not as something of the past but as a paradigmatic political space in which ordinary law is completely suspended and 2 an italian english parallel text of the war diary of an italian prisoner during his confinement at the stalag x b internment camp near sandbostel from 1943 1945 1 the human condition of exception collected essays edited by aisling reid and valentina surace written in italian and english the essays collected in this volume explore the issue of camps and suffering from various perspectives including philosophical inquiry literary analysis historical description and legal assessment as agamben suggests the camp embodies the state of exception a dehumanising camp life will therefore emerge every time such a structure is created what happens in camps exceeds the juridical concept of punishment as well as that of crime prisoners are faced with a useless pain levinas as it is not the expiation of a fault prisoners attempt to describe their extreme suffering through their diaries their experience however cannot be entirely communicated even their screams which express humanity at the extreme limit of its unpower are silenced given the recent popularity of right wing politics as well as the centenary of mussolini s march on rome such research is more urgent than ever the book will appeal to readers with an interest in philosophy as well as irish history scholars studying internment during partition and the troubles in northern ireland 2 aldo quarisa s diary an italian english edition edited by aisling reid and valentina surace transcribed and with a preface by galileo sartor translation of the diary by aisling reid italian english in 1943 aldo quarisa worked at a military school in florence where he taught literature in october of that year one month after italy had surrendered to the allied forces the italians declared war on the germans in florence the german occupiers responded quickly by arresting and deporting people with military connections to numerous concentration camps in austria quite suddenly aldo was detained and deported through a network of camps including benjaminovo and the stalag x b internment camp near the austrian village of sandbostel for two years he found himself imprisoned alongside other italians including the celebrated journalist giovannino guareschi who secretly kept a diary that was later published as his diario clandestino 1943 1945 in 1946 much like guareschi aldo also kept a diary and excerpts are published here in both italian and english for the first time the diary describes in unprecedented detail the monotony of camp life the cruelty of the guards and the prisoners struggle to survive the text is an important document that preserves the memory and voices of all those who suffered during the war and will inevitably be of interest to readers with an interest in world war ii
