msc in finance is a postgraduate degree program that focuses on the study of financial markets, instruments, and institutions. It is a two-year program that provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the commercial activity of providing funds and capital. The program covers a wide range of topics, including the management of money and credit, banking, and investments. It is designed to equip students with the knowledge and skills necessary to work in the financial industry.

The program is divided into three main areas of study: 1. The management of money and credit, 2. Banking, and 3. Investments. Each area is covered in depth, with a focus on both theoretical and practical aspects. The program also includes a significant component of research, allowing students to explore current issues in finance and develop their own research projects.

Key features of the program include:
 - Fundamental education for essential knowledge and skills.
 - Advanced education for specialists and practical knowledge and skills.
 - Related knowledge to support core theory of finance.
 - Global business skills and experience.
 - A focus on financial markets and instruments.
 - A strong emphasis on research and analysis.
 - A diverse range of elective courses.
 - A strong track record of employment in the financial industry.
