A Quiet Life

1998-01-17

this classic work of world literature by the 1994 japanese nobel laureate is a devastating and moving blend of memoir and fiction an uncanny blend of the real with the imagined of memoir with fiction a quiet life is narrated by ma chan a twenty year old woman her father is a famous and fascinating novelist her older brother though severely brain damaged possesses an almost magical gift for musical composition and her mother s life is devoted to the care of them both ma chan and her younger brother find themselves emotionally on the outside of this oddly constructed nuclear family but when her father accepts a visiting professorship from an american university ma chan finds herself suddenly the head of the household and at the center of family relationships that are movingly illuminated the new york times through oe s unique and unpredictable genius
