and the thunderfunkfusion project quotes from industry leaders and critics when i arrived at motown in 1963 tony newton was already there as the bass player for the smokey and the miracles he was even there before earl van dyke or uriel jones tony and i were two of the first musicians now still living to tour europe with motown acts he was and still is one of the best bass players that ever did it later when i became a touring artist tony joined me as the bass player i was very familiar with his skills but during a sound check tony sat at the piano and performed a sensational original classical composition i was totally surprised at his versatility when i recall the production of the documentary standing in the shadows of motown i say here and now based on the facts tony newton is a funk
