who are afflicted as well as those who are adversely affected by mental illness often live lives of quiet desperation without recourse to appropriate assistance most caregivers confronted with these illnesses in the work of ministry have had no training or accurate information about mental illnesses so frequently they do nothing resulting in further harm and damage others may operate out of a theological system that does not adequately account for the nature severity or treatment of these illnesses in ministry with persons with mental illness and their families second edition psychiatrists and pastoral theologians come together in an interdisciplinary collaborative effort to ensure accuracy of information concerning the medical dimensions of mental illness interpret these illnesses from a faith perspective and make suggestions relative to effective ministry readers will learn how science and a faith tradition can not only co exist but work in tandem to alleviate the pain of the afflicted and affected the life altering experiences of the american soldiers who liberated three nazi concentration camps on april 4 1945 united states army units from the 89th infantry division and the 4th armored division seized ohrdruf the first of many nazi concentration camps to be liberated in germany in the weeks that followed as more camps were discovered thousands of soldiers came face to face with the monstrous reality of hitler s germany these men discovered the very depths of human imposed cruelty and depravity railroad cars stacked with emaciated lifeless bodies ovens full of incinerated human remains warehouses filled with stolen shoes clothes luggage and even eyeglasses prison yards littered with implements of torture and dead bodies and perhaps most disturbing of all the half dead survivors of the camps for the american soldiers of all ranks who witnessed such powerful evidence of nazi crimes the experience was life altering almost all were haunted for the rest of their lives by what they had seen horrified that humans from ostensibly civilized societies were capable of such crimes military historian john c mcmanus sheds new light on this often overlooked aspect of the holocaust drawing on a rich blend of archival sources and thousands of firsthand accounts including unit journals interviews oral histories memoirs diaries letters and published recollections hell before their very eyes focuses on the experiences of the soldiers who liberated ohrdruf buchenwald and dachau and their determination to bear witness to this horrific history reprint of the original first published in 1881 this reader brings together a selection of key writings to explore the relationship between religion media and cultures of everyday life it provides an overview of the main debates and developments in this growing field focusing on four major themes religion spirituality and consumer culture media and the transformation of religion the sacred senses visual material and audio culture religion and the ethics of media and culture this collection is an invaluable resource for students academics and researchers wanting a deeper understanding of religion and contemporary culture a provocative feminist analysis of the moral panics of sexuality this interdisciplinary edited collection showcases the range of historical and contemporary crises we too often suppress including vagina dentata vampires cannibalism age appropriateness breast cancer menstrual panics and sex education from the female soldiers of abu ghraib prison to palestinian women suicide bombers women and their bodies have been powerful weapons in the afghanistan and iraq wars kelly oliver reveals how the media and the george w bush administration used metaphors of weaponry to describe women and female sexuality and forge a link between vulnerability and violence oliver analyzes the discourse surrounding women sex and gender and the use of women to justify america s decision to go to war she also considers the cultural meaning or lack of meaning that lead female soldiers at abu ghraib to abuse prisoners just for fun and the commitment to death made by women suicide bombers she examines the pleasure taken in violence and the passion for death and what kind of contexts creates them oliver concludes with a diagnosis of our fascination with sex violence and death and its relationship with live news coverage and embedded reporting which naturalizes horrific events and stymies critical reflection presents a classification and analysis of the metaphysics of the predominant tradition of mu tazila that of basra in the period of the highest development ad 900 1050 this is the first of the major schools of sunni muslim theology and their metaphysics and the first book to deal with the underlying theoretical principles of earlier islamic theology crime is undergoing a metamorphosis the online technological revolution has created new opportunities for a wide variety of crimes which can be perpetrated on an industrial scale and crimes traditionally committed in an offline environment are increasingly being transitioned to an online environment this book takes a case study based approach to exploring the types perpetrators and victims of cyber frauds topics covered include an in depth breakdown of the most common types of cyber fraud and scams the victim selection techniques and perpetration strategies of fraudsters an exploration of the impact of fraud upon victims and best practice examples of support systems for victims current approaches for policing punishing and preventing cyber frauds and scams this book argues for a greater need to understand and respond to cyber fraud and scams in a more effective and victim centred manner it explores the victim blaming discourse before moving on to examine the structures of support in place to assist victims noting some of the interesting initiatives from around the world and the emerging strategies to counter this problem this book is essential reading for students and researchers engaged in cyber crime victimology and international fraud general george armstrong custer and his wife libbie custer were wholehearted dog lovers at the time of his death at little bighorn they owned a rollicking pack of 40 hunting dogs including scottish deerhounds russian wolfhounds greyhounds and foxhounds told from a dog owner s perspective this biography covers their first dogs during the civil war and in texas hunting on the kansas and dakota frontiers entertaining tourist buffalo hunters including a russian archduke english aristocrats and p t barnum all of whom presented the general with hounds custer s attack on the washita village when he was accused of strangling his own dogs and the 7th cavalry s march to little bighorn with an analysis of rumors about a last stand dog the custers pack was rehomed after his death in the first national dog rescue effort well illustrated the book includes an appendix giving depictions of the custers dogs in art literature and film this book focuses on the united nations sdg 3 sdg 12 and sdg 15 the book covers the full range of issues associated with agrochemical use from a one health standpoint to promote a cleaner and safer alternative that leaves little to no negative legacy on earth s natural social and economic systems the main focus of the book is to address the biodiversity and human health food security and socio environmental implications of agrochemical use in food production it deals with the need to move away from the use of harmful chemicals in agriculture the threat to key aspects of one health will be used as evidence in support of the need to transition to safer and cleaner food production systems as well as the social economic health and environmental viability of sustainable alternatives one health is the innovative convergence approach that encourages collaborative cross sectoral and transdisciplinary methods to monitor assess report and implement shared human health biodiversity and environmental challenges and goals such as agrochemical use conventional agrochemicals are chemicals used to protect plants improve crop yield and manage agricultural fields but also have a negative legacy on earth s systems this book is of interest and useful to agricultural trainees and trainers soil food and agricultural institutes food and soil systems specialists biodiversity and environmental managers activists practitioners and students it is also a useful read for conservationists and industries interested in promoting organic agriculture for a sustainable community regional and global development whether a secularized morality biblical worldview or unstated set of mores the victorian period can and always will be distinguished from those before and after for its pervasive sense of the proper way of thinking speaking doing and acting animals in literature taught victorian children how to behave if you are a postmodern posthumanist you might argue but the animals in literature did not write their own accounts animal characters may be the creations of writers imagination but animals did and do exist in their own right as did and do humans the original essays in animals and their children in victorian explore the representation of animals in children s literature by resisting an anthropomorphized perception of them instead of focusing on the domestication of animals this book analyzes how animals in literature civilize children teaching them how to get along with fellow creatures both human and nonhuman reproduction of the original draws on mid seventeenth to nineteenth century slave narratives to describe oppression in the lives of enslaved african women investigates pre colonial west and west central african women s lives prior to european arrival to recover the cultural traditions and religious practices that helped enslaved women combat violence and oppression lots of marketers paint a rosy picture of the lifestyle of baby boomers as they enter the retirement years
