in equality and the family don brownings pulls together essays he has published in the past in order to shed light on the path we should take in the future he contends that practical theology can be envisioned as a practical research program and he uses the very concrete example of the family to illustrate how this works though it may sound unlikely that equality in the family can be based on christian ideas browning insists that it can and that it should his desire is to be pro family and pro marriage in ways that create justice and equality within the family based on this goal he argues for the church s ideal model of the mother father partnership to be balanced with an understanding and acceptance of the pluralism of family forms as a part of modern life including church life a brief introduction of each essay is included to help the reader understand the original context of the piece
