there have been few methods of execution more torturous or more excruciatingly painful than crucifixion and the romans mastered it by design death on a cross was not quick no vital organs were damaged so it was a slow agonizing demise soldiers would first whip the victim with a scourge and then force him to carry his own crossbeam to the execution site once suspended on a cross the hours in a strained position took its toll on the individual s body causing difficulty in breathing and often suffocation some victims died of heart failure and sometimes a person would hang alive for days finally succumbing to death as a welcomed relief it wasn t until a d 337 that crucifixion was banned in rome by the first christian emperor constantine the great but by then thousands had been tortured on a cross including one named jesus christ interestingly enough it was out of reverence for this very jesus that constantine outlawed this method of execution three centuries later when jesus was crucified he voluntarily took the guilt of your sins and mine to the cross with him as death drew near the son of god summoned all of his human strength and said it is finished what did that mean it is finished it meant that there was no more need for bloodshed never again would innocent lambs have to be sacrificed to atone for man s sins as had been done in old testament times the blood flow was finished our salvation had been paid for in full a famous preacher of yesteryear explained it in this fashion as jesus blood the blood of god coursed down the crude roman cross and into the sand it was as if the sand whispered to a blade of grass it is finished the blade of grass leaned toward a tree and said it is finished the tree lifted its leafy limbs heavenward and shouted to an eagle it is finished the soaring eagle rose higher and higher and screamed to the whole earth it is finished and so it was finished my sin and yours were paid for with the precious blood of christ though there were thousands of men who were crucified only the crucifixion of the sinless son of god was worthy to be part of god s eternal plan for man s salvation the cross should be a constant reminder to each of us of the goodness of god in allowing his only son to die in that manner and especially to die in our place there is only one reason you he gave his life for you and for me so each of us is personally responsible for receiving or rejecting god s offer of cleansing from our sins the thing that makes jesus experience with crucifixion so unique and supreme is that he was taken from the cross placed in a sealed tomb and after three days rose from the dead he ever lives to be our savior and lord thus god s plan for our salvation was made complete although it cost jesus everything to pay for your sins and mine he makes it very easy for us to know him personally and to be saved we are the sinners he is the sacrifice we have the problem he is the provider here is god s plan of salvation for you and me according to the bible first admit that you are lost and need a savior for there is not a just man upon earth that doeth good and sinneth not ecclesiastes 7 20 all have sinned and come short of the glory of god romans 3 23 second realize that a heavy penalty is on your sin except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish luke 13 3 wherefore as by one man adam sin entered into the world and death by sin and so death passed upon all men for that all have sinned romans 5 12 third acknowledge that god made a way for you to be saved for god so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life john 3 16 he humbled himself and became obedient unto death even the death of the cross philippians 2 8 fourth accept god s plan for your salvation today he jesus is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto god by him seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them hebrews 7 25 but as many as received him jesus to them gave he power to become the sons of god even to them that believe on his name john 1 12 read the following prayer several times and then earnestly pray that prayer accepting christ personally and god will forgive your sins and make you one of his own dear lord jesus i confess that i am a guilty sinner and that i need to be saved i believe that jesus died on the cross to pay my sin debt please forgive my sins come into my heart and save my soul i turn my life over to you help me to live for you from now on amen if you have received christ as your personal savior welcome to the family of god please send your name and address to the address below and additional literature will be sent to you to help you in your new life with christ

a question has challenged the human conscience for two thousand years how are we to explain the presence of jesus christ in this world or who indeed was jesus christ a man like the rest of men or was he a divine person why was it that well practiced soldiers who failed to fulfill their commission to arrest him said never man spoke like this man the early church confirmed the apostles declaration that jesus christ was the eternal son of god and that he came into the world to fulfill a messianic redemptive assignment christ jesus the apostle to the gentiles explained came into the world to save sinners in the cross its meaning and message in a postmodern world douglas vickers sees the cross as the watershed of history the divine objectives that the cross addressed bear vitally on the human condition vitiated as that is by the entailment of sin in an age in which postmodernist claims have rejected absolute criteria of truth and validity the christ of the cross provides the only refuge for those burdened by the search for meaning the cross explores the way of reconciliation between god and man it affirms the apostolic claim that in christ are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge the book you are about to read is destined to be a classic many books have been written in a devotional way about the cross of christ but this one is very different dr douglas vickers has treated this wonderful and very necessary doctrine with depth and has given us much to hold dear few studies in print today bring out the essence and meaning of the cross and its message in our postmodern world vickers clearly presents the biblical view of the cross and when it is necessary to dissent from alternative views he remains faithful to the bible and the reformed faith it is refreshing to see quoted such great men of god who studied the cross in depth as john murray and some of the great continental theologians of earlier times i have appreciated the clarity consistency and mature thinking of this fine theologian as always in vickers writing the apologetic system of cornelius van til comes shining through a e lavalley senior pastor west springfield covenant community church douglas vickers phd university of london is professor emeritus of economics at the university of massachusetts among his recent titles are christian confession and the crackling thorn when god converts a sinner and the immediacy of god one of today's most popular and respected catholic writers presents the first guide to the new stations of the cross reflecting the revisions made by pope john paul ii a traditional devotion for catholics for more than four hundred years the stations of the cross commemorates the route jesus traveled from being sentenced to death crucified and then buried in a borrowed tomb on the outskirts of jerusalem in the past the devotion included a number of stations based on popular stories of piety and devotion but not mentioned in the gospels over the past eight years however pope john paul ii has made substantial changes to the devotion in his good friday celebrations of the stations removing those not found in the bible and replacing them with stations that more accurately follow scriptural accounts of christ's passion the revised stations of the cross focuses on the condemned jesus and on the community walking the way with him to the cross unrelieved by stories like veronica's wiping blood off the face of jesus and his meeting with his mother this is a story of an execution the new stations deal directly with the pain suffering betrayal and injustice to which jesus was subjected in explaining his reasons for revising the stations the pope has said that the alterations are intended to serve as a model for other devotions and to encourage the return to the scriptures as the source of and inspiration for contemporary worship in this helpful authoritative guide megan mckenna presents the fourteen new stations with the scriptural passages that pope john paul ii uses on good friday she also provides a basic introduction to the practices and reflections on the importance of the devotion for present day catholics and episcopalians parables of the cross is a didactic look at the parables in the bible i lillias trotter explores openly and indiscriminately the lessons to be divined from the most famous book in the world excerpt there was deep insight in those old words for man s natural thought of death is that of a dreary ending in decay and dissolution and from his standpoint he is right death as the punishment of sin is an ending but far other is god s thought in the redemption of the world he takes the very thing that came in with the curse and makes it the path of glory death becomes a beginning instead of an ending for it becomes the means of liberating a fresh life i chose the title come to the cross from listening to the sermons of the great evangelist billy graham these words really spoke to me but what does come to the cross really mean imagine that you were standing there witnessing the crucifixion of jesus as the apostle john was on that day imagine if you could hear all the sounds that john heard with all the people screaming and others wailing in sorrow what if you could actually hear the words jesus spoke from the cross with the smell of his blood in the air what would it be like to look into the eyes of jesus as he gasped for breath knowing that he was enduring all this torture and pain so that you could be set free from all your sin i believe that no one could look upon this and not be changed forever history has proven that this event took place exactly as the bible tells us it did anyone can now travel to israel today and stand at the place of his crucifixion god inspired me to write this book to help people understand who god is and why jesus had to suffer and die so those who believe in him can receive eternal life with him in his kingdom forever let your mind ponder this awhile we are now living on the eve of the darkest times the world will ever know jesus called this time the beginning of sorrows the time is at hand to come to the cross surrender your life and receive the salvation that christ gave his life for
