s function the people who make it work and the activities that occur there meet airport staff and airline crew members and learn about the systems for air traffic control fuel cleaning and maintenance ticketing baggage handling security checks meals and more the questions on every page will make kids look closely and want to know more booklist april 1996 the bestselling author of the architecture of happiness and the art of travel spends a week at an airport in a wittily intriguing meditation on the non place that he believes is the centre of our civilization in the summer of 2009 alain de botton was invited by the owners of heathrow airport to become their first ever writer in residence given unprecedented unrestricted access to wander around one of the world s busiest airports he met travellers from all over the globe and spoke with everyone from baggage handlers to pilots and senior executives to the airport chaplain based on these conversations he has produced this extraordinary meditation on the nature of travel work relationships and our daily lives working with the renowned documentary photographer richard baker he explores the magical and the mundane and the interactions of travellers and workers all over this familiar but mysterious non place which by definition we are eager to leave taking the reader through departures air side and the arrivals hall de botton shows with his usual combination of wit and wisdom that spending time in an airport can be more revealing than we might think children can create their own busy airport scenes showing people and planes arriving at the airport getting ready to fly taking off and up in the air in this colorful sticker book with over 100 stickers of planes cars and buses as well as passengers pilots and cabin crew to add to each colorful scene with lots to look at and talk about this book will prepare children for what to expect at an airport and keep them entertained whilst they are there there s so much to do in this busy little book use your fingers to push pull and turn and you can bring a world of playtime fun to life three quarters of a million people are in a plane somewhere right now many millions travel by air each day for most of us the experience of being in an airport is to be endured rather than appreciated with little thought for the quality of the architecture no matter how hard even the world s best architects have tried it is difficult to make a beautiful airport and yet such places do exist cathedrals of the jet age that offer something of the transcendence of flight even in an era of mass travel and budget fares here are twenty one of the most beautiful airports in the world the book features wellington international airport the rock shaped like the dangerous cliffs of a local legend kansai international airport renzo piano s gigantic project built on three mountains of landfill shenzhen international airport a manta ray shaped terminal putting this booming region on the map daocheng yading airport the world s highest civilian airport in the middle of the tibetan mountains chhatrapati shivaji international airport rising from the slums of mumbai like a mogul palace
