républicaines avec la perspective de la menace sectaire s esquisse sous nos yeux un religieux correct acceptable comment est il possible aujourd hui d inscrire l exceptionnel l originel le merveilleux le transcendant religieux dans le quotidienne et dans quelle mesure paradoxalement les gestionnaires de dieux ne repoussent ils pas toujours plus loin la frontière religieuse by their nature emerging religions explore unfamiliar territory and probe unchartered regions of human creativity for these same reasons religious transactions that venture beyond the boundaries of traditional religious frontiers often rouse suspicion anxiety or even fear among the general population as new religious movements seek to carve out their own niche in society public controversy and opposing beliefs can spark bitter debates and can even lead to calls for state intervention how then do new or borderline religious groups negotiate or mediate the building of public space what impact can the media have on new religions how does the law withstand the creative destruction of religious innovation in this provocative collection of essays twelve experienced specialists break new ground in the sociological study of religion publié en français the paucity of material which has limited the study of aramaic for too long is gradually being alleviated an ever growing body of well edited texts is being made available to the scholarly world these publications have provoked a number of important and penetrating linguistical and grammatical studies generally however corresponding literary studies of these texts are still lacking the present work is an attempt to add a literary approach to the earlier analyses the study deals with aramaic poetry of the period between c 100 b c e and c 600 c e the discussion of the textual material is organized in a number of levels one superimposed upon the other the basis is formed by a close exegetical and literary reading of the poems to elucidate essential elements of content style and form particular attention is paid to structure and composition as a function of the content of the poems and to the use made by the poets of stylistic devices
