this fascinating book explores the history of tobacco and tobacco culture in bulgaria from the mid 19th century when the country became partially and then fully independent from the ottoman empire to the postcommunist present neuburger argues convincingly that smoking and the production of tobacco products played an important if not the key part in bulgaria s political economic and cultural modernization during this period summing up highly recommended choice in balkan smoke mary c neuburger leads readers along the bulgarian ottoman caravan routes and into the coffeehouses of istanbul and

sofia she reveals how a remote country was drawn into global economic networks through tobacco production and consumption and in the process became modern in writing the life of tobacco in bulgaria from the late ottoman period through the years of communist rule neuburger gives us much more than the cultural history of a commodity she provides a fresh perspective on the genesis of modern bulgaria itself the tobacco trade comes to shape most of bulgaria s international relations it drew bulgaria into its fateful alliance with nazi germany and in the postwar period bulgaria was the primary supplier of smokes the famed bulgarian gold for the ussr and its satellites by the late 1960s bulgaria was the number one exporter of tobacco in the world with roughly one eighth of its population involved in production through the pages of this book we visit the places where tobacco is grown and meet the merchants the workers and the peasant growers most of whom are muslim by the postwar period along the way we learn how smoking and anti smoking impulses influenced perceptions of luxury and necessity questions of novelty imitation value taste and gender based respectability while the scope is often global neuburger also explores the politics of tobacco within bulgaria among the book s surprises are the ways in which conflicts over the tobacco industry and smoking help to clarify the forbidding quagmire of bulgarian politics the official records of the proceedings of the legislative council of the colony and protectorate of kenya the house of representatives of the
