st augustine of hippo was the earliest thinker to develop a distinctively christian political and social philosophy he does so mainly from the perspective of platonism and stoicism but by introducing the biblical and pauline conceptions of sin grace and predestination he radically transforms the classical understanding of the political humanity is not perfectible through participation in the life of a moral community indeed there are no moral communities on earth humankind is fallen we are slaves of self love and the destructive impulses generated by it the state is no longer the matrix within which human beings can achieve ethical goods through co operation with other rational and moral beings augustine s response to classical political assumptions and claims therefore transcends normal radicalism his project is not that of drawing attention to weaknesses and inadequacies in our political arrangements with a view to recommending their abolition or improvement nor does he adopt the classical practice of delineating an ideal state to his mind all states are imperfect they are the mechanisms whereby an imperfect world is regulated they can provide justice and peace of a kind but even the best earthly versions of justice and peace are not true justice and peace it is precisely the impossibility of true justice on earth that makes the state necessary robert dyson s new book describes and analyses this transformation in detail and shows augustine s enormous influence upon the development of political thought down to the thirteenth century the christian church has no shortage of revered figures and saints but it is difficult to find one that had a more decisive impact on the course of the church s history than augustine of hippo augustine was a bishop of hippo regius in africa but his works sermons and writings helped hold the church together even as the western roman empire was in its death throes to the extent that every major branch of christianity recognizes him today the catholic church has venerated him as a saint and a doctor of the church orthodox christians also consider him a saint and protestants and calvinists cite him as one of the fathers and inspirations of the protestant reformation in many respects augustine has provided the theological bedrock for christians for nearly 1600 years and as theologian john leith noted in 1990 augustine the north african of berber descent is today the spiritual father of multitudes who are remote indeed from him racially politically and culturally augustine s voluminous writings also had the effect of making him one of antiquity s most influential philosophers though he will always be remembered within the context of christianity augustine studied the works of virgil cicero and the ancient greek philosophers providing a critical bridge between religious and secular philosophy that would in turn inspire st thomas aquinas and similar thinkers in addition to framing the concept of original sin it was augustine who first wrote at length on the theory of just war paul henry s j noted in the history of thought and civilization saint augustine appears to me to be the first thinker who brought into prominence and undertook an analysis of the philosophical and psychological concepts of person and personality these ideas so vital to contemporary man shape not only augustine s own doctrine on god but also his philosophy of man augustine s legacy would have been impressive for anybody to accomplish but it was made all the more amazing by the fact that he spent most of his early years living irreverently though raised a christian he abandoned his faith until he was in his early 30s and one of his prayers would become notorious grant me chastity and continence but not yet he was teaching rhetoric in africa before a series of experiences led to his conversion back to christianity in 386 thus spending the last 45 years of his life in the service of god
