The Sound of Freedom 2006 seminar paper from the year 2020 in the subject english language and literature studies culture and applied geography grade 10 university of freiburg anglistik language english abstract in this paper i will analyze how the relationship between black people and the police is represented in hip hop music more precisely rap music for that reason i chose two important songs in hip hop history which discuss this exact issue and therefore function as a representation of their particular time in the theoretical part i will give a short overview of the development of hip hop for a better understanding of the genre after that i will elucidate how representation in hip hop functions and which theory it refers to in the practical part i will analyze the two songs fuck tha police by n w a from 1988 and alright by kendrick lamar from 2015 since both are important representatives of hip hop of their individual point in time after the analysis i will work out the differences and similarities in the representation of the relationship between black people and the police and finally draw my conclusion

CMJ New Music Report 1999-06-07 the site of north america s greatest battle is a national icon a byword for the civil war and an american cliché described as the most american place in america gettysburg is defended against commercial desecration like no other historic site yet even as schoolchildren learn to revere the place where lincoln delivered his most famous speech gettysburg s image generates millions of dollars every year from touring souvenirs reenactments films games collecting and the internet examining gettysburg s place in american culture this book finds that the selling of gettysburg is older than the shrine itself gettysburg entered the market not with recent interest in the civil war nor even with twentieth century tourism but immediately after the battle founded by a modern industrial society with the capacity to deliver uniform images to millions gettysburg from the very beginning reflected the nation s marketing trends as much as its patriotism gettysburg s pilgrims be they veterans families on vacation or civil war reenactors have always been modern consumers escaping from the world of work and responsibility even as they commemorate and it is precisely this commodification of sacred ground this tension between commerce and commemoration that animates gettysburg s popularity gettysburg continues to be a current rather than a past event a site that reveals more about ourselves as americans than the battle it remembers gettysburg is as it has been since its famous battle both a cash cow and a revered symbol of our most deeply held values

Prisoner Releases 2001 during the long dry season tupuri men and women in northern cameroon gather in gurna camps outside their villages to learn the songs that will be performed at widely attended celebrations to honor the year s dead the gurna provides a space for them to join together in solidarity to care for their cattle fatten their bodies and share local stories but why does the gurna remain meaningful in the modern nation state of cameroon in journey of song clare a ignatowski explores the vitality of gurna ritual in the context of village life and urban neighborhoods she shows how tupuri songs borrow from political discourse on democracy in cameroon and make light of human foibles publicize scandals promote the prestige of dancers and provide an arena for powerful social commentary on the challenges of modern life in the context of broad social change in africa ignatowski explores the creative and communal process by which local livelihoods and identities are validated in dance and song
