scholars have long noted the prevalence of praise of god in luke acts this monograph offers the first comprehensive analysis of this important feature of luke s narrative it focuses on twenty six scenes in which praise occurs studied in light of ancient jewish and greco roman discourse about praise of deity and in comparison with how praise appears in the narratives of tobit and joseph and aseneth the book argues that praise of god functions as a literary motif in all three narratives serving to mark important moments in each plot particularly in relation to the themes of healing conversion and revelation in luke acts specifically the plot presents the long expected visitation of god which arrives in the person of jesus bringing glory to the people of israel and revelation to the gentiles the motif of praise of god aligns closely with the plot s structure communicating to the reader that varied and often surprising events in the story such as healings in luke and conversions in acts together comprise the plan of god the praise motif thus demonstrates the author s efforts to combine disparate source material into carefully constructed historiography publisher s website sometimes you do everything right but it just isn't your day a part fails and your helicopter comes apart in flight or another aircraft runs into you and the pieces of both fall to the ground below or the enemy gunner pulls the trigger at just the right moment and his rounds find your aircraft in exactly the right spot to take it out of the sky whichever way it happens it wasn't your day which is why after 24 years and over 5 000 flight hours with four armed services major robert curtis was so surprised at being alive when he passed his retirement physical starting with enlisting in the army to fly helicopters during vietnam and continuing on through service with the national guard marine corps and royal navy he flew eight different helicopters from the wooden bladed oh 13e through the chinook seaknight and seaking in war and peace around the world during that time over 50 of his friends died in crashes both in combat and in accidents but somehow his skill and not an inconsiderable amount of luck and superstition saw him through his flying career began with a misbegotten strategy for beating the draft by enlisting with the vietnam war raging full blast in 1968 the draft was inevitable so he wanted to at least get some small measure of control of his future although he had no thought of flying when he walked into the recruiting office he walked out signed up to be a helicopter pilot what he did not know was that 43 of all the aircraft sent to vietnam were destroyed in combat or accidents soon he was in the thick of the war flying chinooks with the 101st airborne after vietnam he left the army but kept flying in the national guard while going to college he was accepted at two law schools but flying is addictive so he instead enlisted in the usmc to fly some more over the next 17 years he would fly around the world off us and british ships from egypt to norway and all points in between his engaging story will be a delight to all aviation enthusiasts
