this is a compendium of five books adding up to nearly a quarter of a million litrpg words the greenwood is a virtual reality mmo there is a lot of humor with larger than life some awful characters the stories are full of action pvp dungeon delving and army level combat they also don t take themselves too seriously and promise no uplifting moral points the hero barcud is a ranger who levels up and makes friends builds towns leads armies engages in pvp other notable characters are the psychopathic harald runesmith a crafter of runes the shifty thief jimmy the zit the wise druid rohan black metal loving ajora who transforms into a polar bear for combat the flamboyant and powerful killer bard romeo el mejor the greenwood chronicles compendium includes books 1 5 of the greenwood litrpg series including a player in the greenwood the runesmith war in the greenwood the bard plague in the greenwood praise for the greenwood series a player in the greenwood exceptionally well told story great background and plot line characters that are almost alive and good levels of rpg knowledge one interesting story element was a detailed system of poisons which i rarely see the runesmith a great read i cannot recommend it highly enough a thoroughly despicable character with no redeeming qualities war in the greenwood this is a great follow on from the previous book a good mix of action and rts elements the bard the characters are fun the story flows well the humor is very tongue in cheek
