author's Lady Travelers Society series Harry Armstrong has spent years in Egypt recovering relics and disregarding rules now he's back in England with a new title and a new purpose penning his exploits but his efforts are overshadowed by London's favorite writer about Egypt a woman they call the Queen of the Desert of all things worse her stories serialized in newspapers and reprinted in books are complete rubbish Miss Sidney Honeywell didn't set out to deceive anyone it's not her fault readers assumed her tales of a lady adventurer in Egypt were real admitting her inadvertent deception now would destroy her reputation and her livelihood but when the Earl of Brenton challenges her to travel to Egypt to prove her expertise accompanied by his dashing arrogant nephew what choice does she have but to pack her bags with the matchmaking founders of the Lady Travelers Society in tow Harry is determined to expose Sidney's secret but the truth might not be as great a revelation as discovering that love can strike even the most stubborn of hearts Alexander continues her celebration of multigenerational female bravado and intensifies the complexity of this delightfully over the top series through a fantastical Egyptian travelogue and playfully praises the value of telling a good adventure tale through its imaginative fiction writing female lead publishers weekly interrogating how Alexandria became enshrined as the exemplary cosmopolitan space in the Middle East this book mounts a radical critique of eurocentric conceptions of cosmopolitanism the dominant account of alexandrian cosmopolitanism elevates things european in the city s culture and simultaneously places things egyptian under the sign of decline the book goes beyond this civilization barbarism binary to trace other modes of intercultural solidarity halim presents a comparative study of literary representations addressing poetry fiction guidebooks and operettas among other genres she reappraises three writers c p cavafy e m forster and lawrence durrell whom she maintains have been cast as the canon of alexandria attending to issues of genre gender ethnicity and class she refutes the view that these writers representations are largely congruent and uncovers a variety of positions ranging from orientalist to anti colonial the book then turns to bernard de zogheb a virtually unpublished writer and elicits his camp parodies of elite levantine mores in operettas one of which centers on cavafy drawing on arabic critical and historical texts as well as contemporary writers and filmmakers engagement with the canonical triumvirate halim orchestrates an egyptian dialogue with the european representations travel guide to egypt is your ultimate companion for exploring the wonders of this ancient land from the iconic pyramids of giza to the vibrant bazaars of cairo this comprehensive guide provides essential information on historical sites cultural experiences and practical travel tips discover the enchanting beauty of the Nile river immerse yourself in the captivating history of the pharaohs and indulge in the rich traditions of egyptian cuisine with insider recommendations and detailed maps this guide is perfect for both first time visitors and seasoned travelers seeking to uncover the treasures of egypt embark on a journey of discovery and adventure with travel guide to egypt the treaty of ghent signed in 1814 ending the war of 1812 allowed americans once again to travel abroad medical students went to paris artists to rome academics to göttingen and tourists to all european capitals more intrepid americans ventured to athens to constantinople and even to egypt beginning with two eighteenth century travelers this book then turns to the 25 year period after 1815 that saw young men from east coast cities among them graduates of harvard yale and columbia traveling to the lands of the bible and of the greek and latin authors they had first known as teenagers naval officers off ships of the mediterranean squadron visited cairo to see the pyramids two groups went on business one importing steam powered rice and cotton mills from new york the other exporting giraffes from the kalahari desert for wild animal shows in new york drawing on unpublished letters and diaries together with previously neglected newspaper accounts as well as a handful of published accounts this book offers a new look at the early american experience in egypt and the eastern mediterranean world more than thirty illustrations complement the stories told by the travelers themselves the complete story of the universe and absolutely everything in it minus the boring parts despite our clever linguistic abilities humans are spectacularly ill equipped to comprehend what s happening in the universe our senses and intuition routinely mislead us the complete guide to absolutely everything abridged tells the story of how we came to suppress our monkey minds and perceive the true nature of reality written with wit and humor this brief book tells the story of science tales of fumbles and missteps errors and egos hard work accidents and some really bad decisions all of which have created the sum total of human knowledge geneticist adam rutherford and mathematician hannah fry guide readers through time and space through our bodies and brains showing how emotions shape our view of reality how our minds tell us lies and why a mostly bald and curious ape decided to begin poking at the fabric of the universe rutherford and fry shine as science sleuths wrestling with some truly head scratching questions where did time come from do we have free will does my dog love me hilarious sidebars present memorable scientific oddities for example hypnotized snails human sized ants and the average time it takes most animals to evacuate their bladders a surprisingly consistent twenty one seconds if you must know both rigorous and playful the complete guide to absolutely everything abridged is a celebration of the weirdness of the cosmos the strangeness of humans and the joys and follies of scientific discovery completely updated this bestseller covers the essentials of healthy travel from pre travel vaccination and avoiding jet lag and altitude sickness to the treatment of travelers a about embarking on a transformative odyssey through the realms of wonder that egypt graciously unfolds a comprehensive history of egyptian archeology from the origins of the field during the napoleonic era to world war i reading the twelve major novels of lawrence durrell this study argues for their consideration as a single major project an opus marked by themes of liminality and betweenness as major texts of mid twentieth century literature repeatedly earning nominations for the nobel prize durrell s work has attracted renewed critical attention since his centenary in 2012 this study shows the thematic unity of the opus in five areas first by disrupting expectations of love and death and by fashioning plural narrators works in the opus blend notions of the subject and the object second in their use of metafictional elements the texts present themselves as neither fiction nor reality third their approach to place and identity offers something between the naturalistic and the human centric fourth though the texts initial concerns are engaged with understanding the past and preparing for a future they all resolve in something like the present and fifth though the novels reject many aspects of modernism they reside nevertheless between the poles of modernism and postmodernism shared with other writers including t s eliot and henry miller as early as the 1940s durrell s plans for his major works of fiction remained consistent through the publication of the last novel in 1985 and these plans show the need to consider the twelve major works as a unitary whole seeking bread and fortune in port said probes migrant labor s role in shaping the history of the suez canal and modern egypt it maps the everyday life of port said s residents between 1859 when the town was founded as the suez canal s northern harbor and 1906 when a railway connected it to the rest of egypt through groundbreaking research lucia carminati provides a ground level perspective on the key processes touching late nineteenth century egypt heightened domestic mobility and immigration intensified urbanization changing urban governance and growing foreign encroachment by privileging migrants prosaic lives seeking bread and fortune in port said shows how unevenness and inequality laid the groundwork for the suez canal s making with 1 125 entries and 170 contributors
