A General Description of All Trades 1747 reprint of the second edition first published in 1749 this fascinating textbook for laymen and law students is a fine example of the maxim based pedagogy represented by such authors as Bacon, Noy, Wingate and Broome. Grounds and Rudiments contains 526 alphabetically arranged maxims, rules, principles and quotations accompanied by comments and illustrations. It also includes short essays on law in general, the sources of law, the nature of equity and the pedagogical value of maxims.
