a duke s well ordered world is turned upside down when a female inventor sends his heart soaring in this regency romance by a new york times bestselling author merlin lambourne has invented the speaking box a sort of telephone which is so valuable that napoleon has killed for it sent by the crown to bring both inventor and invention to safety ransom falconer duke of damerell is shocked to learn mr lambourne is a miss perhaps more shocking however are his feelings for the eccentric genius she is everything he doesn t like incapable of following orders unaware of conventional etiquette preoccupied disorganized and unkempt yet she beguiles him one of the most ingenious inventors in england she is also one of the country s greatest hopes in the defense against the power mad napoleon bonaparte now if he could just get her mind out of the clouds and convince her to marry him merlin is not absentminded it s just that she only seems to be able to pay attention to one thing at a time and maybe she does take everything people say literally but people ought to say what they mean now this ransom falconer wants her to forget her current interest in flying machines and focus on the speaking box she s lost interest in finishing it s quite disconcerting in fact everything about him is disconcerting in her isolated life merlin has never met anyone who affects her quite like ransom does with her trademark blend of heartwarming characters and a hilarious conflict midsummer moon is yet another winner from the author of flowers from the storm praised by lisa kleypas as the gold standard in historical romance
