unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 we have not used ocr optical character recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 in books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc we have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy

Anna Howard Shaw, the Story of a Pioneer

the story of my life may be the most extraordinary autobiography ever written its author was only 22 when it was published in 1903 but her life to that point had already been most uncommon she had been rendered deaf blind and later mute by an illness at the age of 19 months and only years later learned to read speak and understand others through the dedication of a teacher extraordinary in her own right american author and activist helen adams keller 1880 1968 became famous thanks to the story of my life which was later adapted for stage and screen in various incarnations under the title the miracle worker a reference to that special teacher annie sullivan here in her own words is keller s firsthand experience of the dawning of enlightenment on the severely isolated child she was and her evolution into the educated and erudite young woman she became

The Story of Jean Jarousseau ... Translated from the French by ... E. P. De L'Hoste. A New Edition

calum carmichael asserts that biblical texts both in the old and new testaments which have been the subject of interpretation for centuries are themselves often the products of the ancient authors interpretation of still other literary compositions claiming that parts of the bible constitute major and very early examples of exegesis carmichael demonstrates that the author of the story of creation in genesis 1 produced his work in reaction to troubling issues that arose in the story of the exodus the author of john s gospel in turn recounted the life of jesus in light of the story of creation pointing out that much of modern literary criticism has roots in biblical hermeneutics carmichael turns his attention to the richness and complexity of the ancient world s own modes of interpretation by doing so he is able to uncover the heretofore unrecognized influence of the exodus story on the creation story and of the creation story on john s gospel carmichael first shows how the author of the seven day scheme of creation in genesis produced it in response to his reading of the exodus story which was centuries old in his time he then shows the extent to which the author of john s gospel was influenced by first century cosmological speculation philo s in particular in the first five chapters of his gospel the author elaborated the details of the creation story to present in allegorical fashion incidents from the life of jesus
