selected from 242 submissions the papers address topics such as information technologies supporting learning learning teaching methodologies and assessment social context and learning environments domain applications and case studies and ubiquitous learning this volume book brings together nine background papers prepared for an evaluation by the imf independent evaluation office of the imf and the crises in greece ireland and portugal it presents an authoritative work on the evolving relationship between the imf and the euro area a common currency area founded in 1999 consisting of advanced highly integrated economies in europe the euro area or any common currency area for that matter has posed challenges to the imf s operational activities as its articles of agreement contain no provision for joint membership the challenges became intense when a series of crises erupted in greece ireland and portugal from 2009 to 2011 and the fund was called upon to help intervene by offering its financing and crisis management expertise the imf found itself in uncharted territory where there was no precedent or established procedure the chapters many of which are prepared by prominent academics and former senior imf officials who are thoroughly familiar with internal procedures discuss various aspects of the imf s engagement with the euro area including precrisis surveillance how key decisions were made how the imf collaborated with european institutions and how it designed and implemented its lending programs with the three crisis countries the book gives prominence to governance related issues given the large voting share of more than 20 percent within the imf of euro area members and the subsequent public perception that the imf treated the euro area more favorably than it does developing and emerging market members the approaches are both cross cutting and country based some chapters deal with issues related to the euro area as a whole while others focus on how the fund engaged with individual euro area countries the book contains a statement on the ieo evaluation by the imf managing director and a summing up of the executive board discussion this volume book brings together nine background papers prepared for an evaluation by the imf independent evaluation office of the imf and the crises in greece ireland and portugal it presents an authoritative work on the evolving relationship between the imf and the euro area a common currency area founded in 1999 consisting of advanced highly integrated economies in europe the euro area or any common currency area for that matter has posed challenges to the imf s operational activities as its articles of agreement contain no provision for joint membership the challenges became intense when a series of crises erupted in greece ireland and portugal from 2009 to 2011 and the fund was called upon to help intervene by offering its financing and crisis management expertise the imf found itself in uncharted territory where there was no precedent or established procedure the chapters many of which are prepared by prominent academics and former senior imf officials who are thoroughly familiar with internal procedures discuss various aspects of the imf s engagement with the euro area including precrisis surveillance how key decisions were made how the imf collaborated with european institutions and how it designed and implemented its lending programs with the three crisis countries the book gives prominence to governance related issues given the large voting share of more than 20 percent within the imf of euro area members and the subsequent public perception that the imf treated the euro area more favorably than it does developing and emerging market members the approaches are both cross cutting and country based some chapters deal with issues related to the euro area as a whole while others focus on how the fund engaged with individual euro area countries the book contains a statement on the ieo evaluation by the imf managing director and a summing up of the executive board discussion held in july 2016

UPSC Mains English (Compulsory) Question Papers 2021-05-01

working with paper builds on a growing interest in the materials of science by exploring the gendered uses and meanings of paper tools and technologies considering how notions of gender impacted paper practices and in turn how paper may have structured knowledge about gender through a series of dynamic investigations covering europe and north america and spanning the early modern period to the twentieth century this volume breaks new ground by examining material histories of paper and the gendered worlds that made them contributors explore diverse uses of paper from healing to phrenological analysis to model making to data processing which often occurred in highly gendered yet seemingly divergent spaces such as laboratories and kitchens court rooms and boutiques ladies chambers and artisanal workshops foundling houses and colonial hospitals and college gymnasiums and state office buildings together they reveal how notions of masculinity and femininity became embedded in and expressed through the materials of daily life working with paper uncovers the intricate negotiations of power and difference underlying epistemic practices forging a material history of knowledge in which quotidian and scholarly practices are intimately linked
