biography samuel chadwick was born in burnley lancashire in the industrialised north of england into a devout methodist family his father worked in a cotton mill and at the age of 8 samuel joined him working 12 hour shifts at the age of 21 he became a lay pastor at nearby stacksteads after a major awakening and deepening of his faith in his late twenties via a personal epiphany after which he burned all his early sermons he moved on to larger congregations and greater popularity after a few years preaching in edinburgh and at a new chapel in glasgow he was ordained in 1890 and returned to england as superintendent of
