Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2000 1999 inhaltsangabe abstract until the 1990s the association of southeast asian nations asean had a long however unsuccessful tradition of promoting regional economic development through inter governmental cooperation this changed in 1992 with the foundation of the asean free trade area afta which is regarded as asean s first serious step towards regional economic integration afta s aim is to abolish trade barriers among the participating countries be it tariffs or non tariff barriers the member countries are therefore required to liberalize their economies through adjustments of their domestic tariff systems and through the elimination of non tariff barriers ntbs the formerly high degrees of economic protection have to be gradually reduced and ultimately abolished completely measures that the asean member states were long unwilling to implement hence asean s decision to found afta in 1992 was very sceptically perceived by the international community indeed the development of afta displays two contrary characteristics on the one hand the asean members decided to accelerate the implementation of afta by five years and complemented it with two additional programmes the asean investment area aia and the asean framework agreement on services afas on the other hand the institutional design of afta provides the member countries with a high degree of flexibility to prolong or delay the process of implementation and re negotiate commitments already made two conclusions can be drawn from the above stated developments on the hand the signing of the afta framework in 1992 clearly indicates a major shift in the member states attitude towards regional economic integration moreover the initially quick implementation of the original agreement as well as its acceleration by five years and the inclusion of those potentially contentious issue areas namely trade in unprocessed agricultural products and in services which the member countries had excluded from the original afta framework underline this shifting attitude towards regional economic integration on the other hand some member states delayed the implementation of tariff reductions and the negotiation of sensitive products indicating that they were not equally committed to the process of implementation these conclusions lead to the two research questions that this thesis answers firstly why did the southeast asian states change their preferences towards regional

The Army Lawyer 1997 this book is written for people who are skeptical and uneasy when they hear politicians economists and reporters tell americans you re never had it so good as they recite lists of leading economic indicators the social health of a nation as its subtitle indicates tell us how america is really doing the facts in this book confirm what many american know intuitively they are not better off now not with income inequality at its worst level in fifty years not with more and more americans dropped from insurance rolls not with thousands of americans feeling the effects of corporate downsizing not with real wages on a long term decline this book provides the facts to see the rest of the picture the condition of the american national spirit that can never be revealed by economic indicators alone it also provides a forceful argument that without the social side of the picture americans are in the dark about the nation s progress this book as not an ideological tract however it s purpose is portrayal not prescription not everything reported is bad news an entire chapter is devoted to indicators of improving social performance because it does not advocate for example a return to big government or any quick fix solution this book will be welcomed by readers from all parts of the political spectrum or of no particular political persuasion it will appeal to concerned individuals from business government clergy and other professions and to those who represent no interest group it will also be widely used as supplemental text in a variety of sociology economics and political science courses the social health of the nation is written by two sociologists marc and luisa miringoff marc is currently the professor of social welfare policy at fordham university graduate center and the founder and director of the fordham institute for innovation in social policy luisa is professor of sociology at vassar college where she has served as department chair and director of its urban studies program both earned ph d degrees from the university of chicago since 1987 marc has headed a research team to develop the index of social health a nationally recognized social barometer that has been featured in ten new york times and four washington post articles this index has commanded increasingly large electronic and print media attention because of its powerful presentation of trends in family life income health housing child poverty and other social indicators of everyday life in the united states the social health of the nation will include the previously unreleased and very newsworthy index for 1998 but it will contain much more influenced by the effectiveness of the index of social health in the summer of 1996 the ford foundation approached the authors with a plan alarmed by a lack of government attention in the united states to monitoring the nation s social health the foundation had a vision of creating a book building on the index of social health to show what is needed to advance this field and deepen its impact to that end the foundation provided financial assistance for the book s development by funding miringoff s fordham institute for innovation in social policy to convene a twenty five member team the working group on social indicators including nationally known pollster daniel yankelovich and director of research and vice president of cnn judy milestone each member of the working group was motivated to improve social reporting in the united states they came from the media universities and government representing fields as diverse as law medicine sociology and economics the vision of the ford foundation with the assistance of this working group has now become a reality in the social health of the nation a nine chapter book written by marc and marque luisa miringoff this book does show the other side of the official portrait of how america is doing providing comprehensive coverage of improving shifting and worsening social performance it fills in the blanks after all the economic indicators are posted the book contains surprises the same kind that have been made the yearly release of the social index of health a subject of media attention for twelve years an index whose 1998 figures will be released exclusively in this book while some of the indicators will shock other will give reason for hope as we see evidence of improved performance in unlikely places for those whose livelihoods and well being depend on the social health of the united states this book provides the information necessary to find creative solutions for improved performance for students in a wide range of courses this book will become required reading

The Influence of Domestic Interests on ASEAN politics 2006-09-27 against the backdrop of china s mounting influence and north korea s growing nuclear capability and expanding missile arsenal south korea faces a set of strategic choices that will shape its economic prospects and national security in south korea at the crossroads scott a snyder examines the trajectory of fifty years of south korean foreign policy and offers predictions and a prescription for the future pairing a historical perspective with a shrewd understanding of today s political landscape snyder contends that south korea s best strategy remains investing in a robust alliance with the united states snyder begins with south korea s effort in the 1960s to offset the risk of abandonment by the united states during the vietnam war and the subsequent crisis in the alliance during the 1970s a series of shifts in south korean foreign relations followed the nordpolitik engagement with the soviet union and china at the end of the cold war kim dae jung s sunshine policy designed to bring north korea into the international community trustpolitik which sought to foster diplomacy with north korea and japan and changes in south korea s relationship with the united states despite its rise as a leader in international financial development and climate change forums south korea will likely still require the commitment of the united states to guarantee its security although china is a tempting option snyder argues that only the united states is both credible and capable in this role south korea remains vulnerable relative to other regional powers in northeast asia despite its rising profile as a middle power and it must balance the contradiction of desirable autonomy and necessary alliance

Child Welfare National Data Analysis System 1999 as the incomes of affluent and poor families have diverged over the past three decades so too has the educational performance of their children but how exactly do the forces of rising inequality affect the educational attainment and life chances of low income children in whither opportunity a distinguished team of economists sociologists and experts in social and education policy examines the corrosive effects of unequal family resources disadvantaged neighborhoods insecure labor markets and worsening school conditions on k 12 education this groundbreaking book illuminates the ways rising inequality is undermining one of the most important goals of public education the ability of schools to provide children with an equal chance at academic and economic success the most ambitious study of educational inequality to date whither opportunity analyzes how social and economic conditions surrounding schools affect school performance and children s educational achievement the book shows that from earliest childhood parental investments in children s learning affect reading math and other attainments later in life contributor meredith phillip finds that between birth and age six wealthier children will have spent as many as 1 300 more hours than poor children on child enrichment activities such as music lessons travel and summer camp greg duncan george farkas and katherine magnuson demonstrate that a child from a poor family is two to four times as likely as a child from an affluent family to have classmates with low skills and behavior problems attributes which have a negative effect on the learning of their fellow students as a result of such disparities contributor sean reardon finds that the gap between rich and poor children s math and reading achievement scores is now much larger than it was fifty years ago and such income based gaps persist across the school years as martha bailey and sue dynarski document in their chapter on the growing income based gap in college completion whither opportunity also reveals the profound impact of environmental factors on children s educational progress and schools functioning elizabeth ananat anna gassman pines and christina gibson davis show that local job losses such as those caused by plant closings can lower the test scores of students with low socioeconomic status even students whose parents have not lost their jobs they find that community wide stress is most likely the culprit analyzing the math achievement of elementary school children stephen raudenbush marshall jean and emily art find that students learn less if they attend schools with high student turnover during the school year a common occurrence in poor schools and david kirk and robert sampson show that teacher commitment parental involvement and student achievement in schools in high crime neighborhoods all tend to be low for generations of americans public education provided the springboard to upward mobility this pioneering volume casts a stark light on the ways rising inequality may now be compromising schools functioning and with it the promise of equal opportunity in america
