excerpt from christian certainty such a book might also with much propriety point out the most prominent features of the contrast between the uncertain assumptions of infidelity and the assured certainty of faith without detailing all the processes of investigation by which the most certain results have been reached without even enumerating all the results themselves it might yet present enough of both to dissipate the doubts of a sincere enquirer and the fears of a timid believer to that large class of persons to whom a great book is a great evil a manual such as that now indicated would be most valuable such is the ideal of this little volume how far that ideal has been realized my readers will decide it is only natural that for some time yet to come the attitude of a christian apologist should be assumed with reference to that of the now exploded essays and reviews supplemented as they have been by the pentateuch and book of joshua critically examined set for the defence of the gospel combating that hardness of assertion which is assumed to impose upon the uninformed detecting those specious sophisms designed to seduce the unwary and finding so much of both in these last pretentious books on the side of unbelief what can be more natural than that tacitly if not explicitly his own course should be taken with direct reference to that of his adversaries the following pages have no other concern however with essays and reviews or the astounding production of the bishop of natal than as defending those first truths which have been therein so malignantly attacked hence though not put in by way of answer they stand out in direct antagonism the seven essays are by no means equal either in merit or importance the first is too plainly opposed to notorious facts the fourth to common honesty and the fifth to common sense to be capable of doing much mischief it is with the subjects of the remaining four that we have chiefly though incidentally to do the reality of prophecy the certainty of miracles the veracity of moses and the interpretation of scripture about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works the central problem of philosophy is the problem of certainty what does it mean to be sure are there ideas beyond the possibility of error or refutation what does it mean for a notion to be incorrigible in this book frank d schubert squarely addresses the question of whether there is a single standard of certainty that can be applied to such disparate areas as logic mathematics politics religion familial tribal commitments and science schubert proposes a common standard for assessing certainty the certainty of knowing one's own personal proper name as a standard that can establish common ground within each widely disparate area the result is a new philosophy in a grand manner and a powerful ethical proposal for our time

The Certainty of the Final Judgment of All Men ... [By J. B. Cardale.] Second Edition

this work by william strong is a treatise on discovering where the treasure of your heart is placed he shows the certainty and stability and moral goodness of the heart being placed on god the greatest heavenly treasure and the instability and fleeting nature of the heart placed on earthly treasures everything else outside of god he works from christ's direction in the text lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven for where your treasure is there will your heart be also matt 6 20 21 demonstrating that every man in this life has a treasure how to know what your chief treasure is and the manner in which one should lay up treasure by placing their heart in god alone this is an extremely convicting work that will in no way leave the regenerate christian unaffected this work is not a scan or facsimile has been carefully transcribed by hand being made easy to read in modern english and has an active table of contents for electronic versions
