the environmental public awareness handbook was published in 1999 and features the case studies and lessons learned by undp s mongolian environmental public awareness programme epap the handbook draws on the close to 100 small environmental projects the programme oversaw during a two year period these projects stretched across mongolia and operated in a time of great upheaval and social economic and environmental distress the handbook is intended for training purposes and the practice of public participation in environmental protection in its 2007 needs assessment the government of mongolia found the epap projects had a wide impact on limiting many environmental problems successful projects such as the dutch undp funded environmental awareness project epap which was actually a multitude of small pilot projects most costing less than 5 000 each which taught local populations easily and efficiently different ways of living and working that are low impact on the environment
