James Turrell 2013

published in conjunction with the artist's major retrospective exhibition this comprehensive volume traces James Turrell's artistic practice from his years at the Mendota Studio in Santa Monica, California to his monumental work in progress at Roden Crater, an extinct volcano that he has been transforming into a naked eye observatory since 1975. Whether he's projecting three-dimensional shapes into the corner of a gallery space or creating immersive environments that allow viewers to better understand their own perception, Turrell invites us to go inside and greet the light, evoking the meditative practices of his Quaker upbringing. A critical figure emerging from Los Angeles's exploding art scene of the 1960s, Turrell draws from aviation psychology and astronomy in his art. Through ten chapters that survey his various bodies of work, enhanced by thoughtful essays and an illuminating interview with the artist, this monograph explores every aspect of Turrell's oeuvre to date, from his early geometric projections, prints, and drawings through his installations exploring sensory deprivation and seemingly unmodulated fields of colored light to recent holographic works. It also features an in-depth look at the Roden Crater project through models, plans, photographs, and drawings which reveal the power and beauty of his magnum opus and its surrounding landscape. This publication also features extraordinary images by Florian Holzherr, many of which were specially commissioned and are published here for the first time.

To encounter a work by American artist James Turrell is to enter another world, a realm where eye and mind meet. The artist engages us, the viewers, in order to make us witnesses of his focus on nature through scientific means. By making us watch and contemplate for extended periods, Turrell also makes us part of his artistic practice. Included in this publication is an interview with James Turrell by Michael Govan, Director of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, an essay by E.C. Krupp, astronomer and Director of the Griffith Observatory, Los Angeles, as well as discussions on Turrell's works.

James Turrell: A Retrospective 2013-02

Known internationally for his mesmerizing light installations, James Turrell has investigated the ways we perceive light, color, and space for over forty years. His meditative works encourage a state of reflexive vision in which one apprehends the function of one's own senses and the materiality of light. For the artist's first exhibition in a New York museum since 1980, Turrell will offer such an experience through a major site-specific project for the Guggenheim, giving shape to the air and light that occupy the museum's central void. Organized in conjunction with the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, James Turrell comprises one-third of a major retrospective exhibition spanning the United States during summer 2013. In addition to an extensive plates section featuring Turrell's early works, his magnum opus Roden Crater (1976), renderings for his installation for the Guggenheim Rotunda, and photographs of the installation, this exhibition catalogue will include three essays.

para quienes se dedican al arte la luz puede convertirse en un poder misterioso y fascinador el carácter visionario de la luz radica en su cualidad numinosa porque no es la luz óptica lo que se aborda aquí sino aquello que a través de ella se manifiesta ante una realidad que solo es percibida tenuemente la luz adquiere su verdadera significación desde la experiencia visionaria y la creación artística este libro presenta un estudio exhaustivo sobre el fenómeno de la inspiración entendido como un desplazamiento de acceso a lo visionario y su posterior traducción en conocimiento mapi rivera combina su experiencia espiritual y artística con profundas indagaciones teóricas para construir una obra participativa plural y transdisciplinar en la que se entrelazan estudios relatos testimonios y obras artísticas asimismo el sentido numinoso de la luz va trazando una completa cartografía del proceso creador en la que la transcendencia se evidencia como un fenómeno inherente a la condición humana ya sea a través del chamanismo de la mística de la psicología transpersonal o del arte los testimonios de estas experiencias nos permiten desvelar una trama viva pulsante son un sismógrafo de los movimientos del espíritu una radiografía del campo

an illuminating exploration of the meaning of abstract art by acclaimed art historian kirk varnedoe what is abstract art good for what s the use for us as individuals or for any society of pictures of nothing of paintings and sculptures or prints or drawings that do not seem to show anything except themselves in this invigorating account of abstract art since jackson pollock eminent art historian kirk varnedoe the former chief curator of painting and sculpture at the museum of modern art asks these and other questions as he frankly confronts the uncertainties we may have about the nonrepresentational art produced in the past five decades he makes a compelling argument for its history and value much as e h gombrich tackled representation fifty years ago in art and illusion another landmark a w mellon lectures volume realizing that these lectures might be his final work varnedoe conceived of them as a statement of his faith in modern art and as the culminating example of his lucidly pragmatic and philosophical approach to art history he delivered the lectures edited and reproduced here with their illustrations to overflowing crowds at the national gallery of art in washington in the spring of 2003 just months before his death with brilliance passion and humor varnedoe addresses the skeptical attitudes and misunderstandings that we often bring to our experience of abstract art resisting grand generalizations he makes a deliberate and scholarly case for abstraction showing us that more than just pure looking is necessary to understand the self made symbolic language of abstract art proceeding decade by decade he brings alive the history and biography that inform the art while also challenging the received wisdom about distinctions between abstraction and representation modernism and postmodernism and minimalism and pop the result is a fascinating and ultimately moving tour through a half century of abstract art concluding with an unforgettable description of one of varnedoe s favorite works please note all images in this ebook are presented in black and white and have been reduced in size
