when harold ross founded the new yorker in 1925 he described it as a comic weekly and although it has become much more than that it has remained true in its irreverent heart to the founder s description publishing the most illustrious literary humorists of the modern era among them robert benchley dorothy parker groucho marx george s kaufman james thurber s j perelman peter de vries mike nichols marshall brickman woody allen donald barthelme calvin trillin george w s trow veronica geng garrison keillor ian frazier roy blount jr bruce mccall steve martin christopher buckley and paul rudnick this anthology gathers together for the first time the funniest work of more than seventy new yorker contributors parodists take on not only writers like hemingway and kerouac but tv documentaries italian cinema and etiquette books enough have been published robert benchley maintains that there should be no danger of toppling over forward into the wrong soup or getting into arguments as to which elbow belongs on which arm other pieces offer perspectives on the heights of fame the depths of social embarrassment and the ups and downs of love and sex such well loved sketches as thurber s the secret life of walter mitty take their place alongside light hearted essays on food tennis and taxis and flights of fancy that follow an apparently simple premise to the point of no return and sometimes well beyond here you will find large insights woody allen why does man kill he kills for food and not only food frequently there must be a beverage and hard earned wisdom ian frazier on dating your mom here is a grown experienced loving woman one you do not have to go to a party or a singles bar to meet one you do not have to go to great lengths to know and not least a great deal of helpful advice including steve martin s on memory and middle age bored here s a way the over fifty set can easily kill a good half hour 1 place your car keys in your right hand 2 with your left hand call a friend and confirm a lunch or dinner date 3 hang up the phone 4 now look for your car keys a rich selection of humorous verse includes caustic gems by dorothy parker the effortless whimsy of phyllis mcginley and ogden nash s unforgettable slapstick prosody as well as forays by luminaries who ought to have known better like robert graves elizabeth bishop and w h auden a wonderful gift for others or a delightful treat for oneself fierce pajamas is a treasury of laughter from a publication described by auden as the best comic magazine in existence
