Our Times, Our Lives 2004-11 eve otto explains when i began writing this book i had in the back of my mind that those who are young now might someday be interested in what life was like when their grandparents were growing up how life changed drastically with the coming of world war ii in europe and the turbulent years that followed the traumas of our emigration to america with our three young children and the difficult adjustments we had to make my book then is sort of a legacy to them

Circling Around Our Times, Our Culture 2012-02-10 these are critical times some would say self caused and reaping times rickety dangerous but on the other hand a world loaded with gifts and potential its a fight between the goodies and the baddies the flux within all of us circling round our times our culture addresses the whole with a sharp eye it makes you sting cry go oh yeah i knew that it makes you question yourself after all you are our times and culture i dont see anything you dont see im just here to prick you in form and rhythm says ms corwin

The History of Sicily from the Earliest Times 1891 a 2021 edgar award nominee for best critical biographical jacqueline winspear has created a memoir of her english childhood that is every bit as engaging as her maisie dobbs novels just as rich in character and detail history and humanity her writing is lovely elegant and welcoming anne lamott the new york times bestselling author of the maisie dobbs series offers a deeply personal memoir of her family s resilience in the face of war and privation after sixteen novels jacqueline winspear has taken the bold step of turning to memoir revealing the hardships and joys of her family history both shockingly frank and deftly restrained her story tackles the difficult poignant and fascinating family accounts of her paternal grandfather's shellshock her mother's evacuation from London during the Blitz her soft spoken animal loving father's torturous assignment to an explosives team during WWII her parents years living with Romany gypsies and Winspear's own childhood picking hops and fruit on farms in rural Kent capturing her ties to the land and her dream of being a writer at its very inception an eye opening and heartfelt portrayal of a post war England we rarely see this time next year we'll be laughing chronicles a childhood in the English countryside of working class indomitability and family secrets of artistic inspiration and the price of memory
