An Enquiry Into the Life and Legend of Michael Scot

1897

Dr Cliff Williams was born in Yazoo City, Mississippi, at age eighteen months he was stricken with polio. He had corrective surgery when he was about five years old. Dr Williams attended St. Francis Elementary and High School in Yazoo City, Mississippi. After high school he had the second surgery on his right foot and later was fitted with a leg brace. The next year he had the third surgery again on the right foot. He kept the faith and attended Mississippi Vocational College in Itta Bena, Mississippi, where he earned the Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education. Later he attended the University of Cincinnati in Cincinnati, Ohio, where he earned the Master's degree in Business Education. He also earned the Doctorate degree in Business Education with a cognate area in Organizational Behavior Management at the University of Houston in Houston, Texas. Dr Williams spent one year in St. Louis, Missouri, and worked as a teletype operator for the Third District Police Department. He returned to Mississippi and taught school at Obannon High School in Greenville, Mississippi, for two years. After the last year at Obannon, he accepted a position to teach business subjects at Mississippi Valley State University in Itta Bena, Mississippi. He was employed there for thirty-five years. During this time he was married to Ms. Catherine Williams, and he is the father of two children. Tragedy struck in his life as his brother-in-law was killed gangland style in Chicago, Illinois. Another brother-in-law was killed during a robbery while he was working in a convenience store in Houston, Texas. Later his auntie died from emphysema, and his father had a fatal heart attack. All of this occurred within a span of two years. He had gotten numerous articles published in the Clarion Ledger, a Jackson, Mississippi-based newspaper, and had published a book. Dr Williams retired in 1999 and since has served on numerous boards. He also served as vice president of the Mississippi Valley State Alumni Association, Humphreys County Chapter, and is currently serving as the vice president of the Retired Education Personnel Association, Humphreys County Chapter. He has been able to take family vacations to places like Dayton, Ohio, where they visited the Air Force Museum. Noticeably seen there were the airplanes that were used by Presidents Roosevelt, Bush Senior, and Bill Clinton. A trip to Cape Canaveral, Florida, resulted in a tour of the National Aeronautic Space Administration, NASA. They went to San Diego and visited other cities such as Lake Elsinore, Alpine, Los Angeles, and Escondido. They stayed at the Lawrence Welk Resort in Escondido, California. While there they went to Mexico. A trip to Phoenix, Arizona, resulted in a trip to Old Town and the Titan Missile Silo. On a tour they saw George McGovern's home and the home of Paul Harvey. One year they went to Little Rock, Arkansas, and got a chance to visit the Bill Clinton Library. Another noticeable trip was the one to Orlando, Florida, they visited the Believe It or Not Museum, Universal Studios, Epcot Center, and Sea World.

Acclaim for Doc Holliday: splendid, not only the most readable yet definitive study of Holliday yet published, it is one of the best biographies of nineteenth-century western good bad men to appear in the last twenty years. It was so vivid and gripping that I read it twice. Howard R. Lamar, Sterling Professor Emeritus of History, Yale University, and author of the new Encyclopedia of the American West. The history of the American West is full of figures who have lived on as romanticized legends. They deserve serious study simply because they have continued to grip the public imagination. Such was Doc Holliday, and Gary Roberts has produced a model for looking at both the life and the legend of these frontier immortals. Robert M. Utley, author of The Lance and the Shield: The Life and Times of Sitting Bull. Doc Holliday emerges from the shadows for the first time in this important work of western biography. Gary L. Roberts has put flesh and soul to the man who has long been one of the most mysterious figures of frontier history. This is both an important work and a wonderful read. Casey Tefertiller, author of Wyatt Earp: The Life Behind the Legend. Gary Roberts is one of a foremost class of writers who has created a real literature and authentic history of the so-called western. His exhaustively researched and beautifully written Doc Holliday: The Life and Legend reveals a pathetically ill and tortured figure but one of such intense loyalty to Wyatt Earp that it brought him limping to the O.K. Corral and into the glare of history. Jack Burrows, author of John Ringo: The Gunfighter Who Never Was. Gary L. Roberts manifested an interest in Doc Holliday at a very early age, and he has devoted these past thirty odd years to serious and detailed research in the development and writing of Doc Holliday: The Life and Legend. The world knows Holliday as Doc Holliday. Family members knew him as John somewhere in between. The two lies, the real John Henry Holliday, Roberts reflects this concept in his writing. This book should be of interest to Holliday devotees as well as newly found readers. Susan Mckey, Thomas Cousin of Doc Holliday, and
