David Livingstone: The Wayward Vagabond in Africa is an expression of doubt about the raison d'être concerning the 19th century explorers and missionaries in Africa led by David Livingstone, the Scottish explorer and missionary. They are said to have come to civilise backward Africans, which the author creatively reimagines, arguing that it is far from the truth. Instead, their actions gave impetus to colonialism. Properly, in this book, the omniscient narrator everywhere is God's special envoy, mandated to witness history with far-reaching consequences for humanity. His investigation is to help nail David Livingstone on Judgment Day. Much the same way St Peter chronicles events in the Book of Life, read about how everywhere the spirit rides on wind, walks on water, enters into his characters' stream of consciousness, and even discerns how they interpret the world around them, the novel retraces Livingstone's early life from his deprived childhood in Blantyre, Scotland, his ideological evolution and training in London, and his dramatic sojourn in Monomotapa Kingdom, which he half-believes is his destiny. The satirical tone in the novel aptly captures that delusional aspect of Livingstone's God-ordained mission to the world.

God's Daily Answer for Mothers

Blessed is the man who finds wisdom, the man who gains understanding for she is more profitable than silver and yields better returns than gold. Proverbs 3:13-14 NIV. We all know people that we would call wise, prudent, or discerning. What sets these individuals apart is their ability to walk in the guidance of God. Do you feel like you daily receive direction from God? You can from the Scriptures. Author Roberts Liardon sets you on the path to pursuing a life marked by wisdom. With this knowledge and insight, you can find out how to be led by the Spirit of God, develop a plan of action for successful decision-making, defeat the spiritual forces of evil in your life, discover the immense power in daily prayer, and Bible reading, sharpen your discernment, and you will be more than a conqueror.

an examination of the practice and philosophy of sacrifice in three religious traditions in the book of genesis god tests the faith of the hebrew patriarch abraham by demanding that he sacrifice the life of his beloved son isaac bound by common admiration for abraham the religious traditions of judaism christianity and islam also promote the practice of giving up human and natural goods to attain religious ideals each tradition negotiates the moral dilemmas posed by abraham s story in different ways while retaining the willingness to perform sacrifice as an identifying mark of religious commitment this book considers the way in which jews christians and muslims refer to sacrifice not only as ritual offerings but also as the donation of goods discipline suffering and martyrdom weddle highlights objections to sacrifice within these traditions as well presenting voices of dissent and protest in the name of ethical duty sacrifice forfeits concrete goods for abstract benefits a utopian vision of human community thereby sparking conflict with those who do not share the same ideals weddle places sacrifice in the larger context of the worldviews of judaism christianity and islam using this nearly universal religious act as a means of examining similarities of practice and differences of meaning among these important world religions this book takes the concept of sacrifice across these three religions and offers a cross cultural approach to understanding its place in history and deep rooted traditions
