bulletins excerpt from the best reading hints on the selection of books on the formation of libraries public and private on courses of reading etc with a classified bibliography for easy reference we have aimed at a middle course between a meagre catalogue of a bookseller s collection and the elaborate comprehensiveness of a general bibliography under some four hundred different themes or topics we have quoted briefly the titles of such books on each subject as are best known and most surely acceptable either in american or english editions we have included in these selections only those works which are likely to be consulted by the general reader and we have omitted excepting a few leading specimens i law books ii theological and religious treatises iii sunday school books iv technical works in science and art v school text books vi many anonymous and doubtful novels doubtless there are also accidental omissions of good books under the several departments which we have undertaken to fill but this is inevitable in the present crude state of all sources of information as to recent publications we have expended many months of patient labor in collating catalogues both english and american and we trust that a large proportion at least of all the best accessible books relating to each subject indicated will be found chronicled in our lists under their respective heads editions reprints etc in all cases where english books have been reprinted in the united states the american editions have been quoted rather than the original in some instances however the english editions being also supplied in this market and usually being superior to the reprint they are also mentioned about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and
