excerpt from the simple truth the material world is a world of effects of forms or what is commonly termed matter it is a world of infinite variety in which many elements seem to be manifested they appear in the mineral vegetable and animal kingdoms and in the manifold expressions of number color sound and form within these realms they appear where ever the physical senses of man meet a response and yet when closely examined all of these elements are seen to merge into one one element which is common to all the essence of all and without which nothing that exists can have being an essence which permeates and animates all things yet is distinct from that which it permeates and animates men have called this intangible all pervading essence spirit or god it is the first cause in relation to which all else are effects about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works excerpt from the simple truth for boys of twelve and over this little volume with its well considered and carefully presented information about a subject about which so little that is correct is generally known has a larger field than is indicated in the author's touching preface it should appeal with special force to parents and to all who are entrusted with that most sacred of human charges the care and training of the young the body is not a thing to be ashamed of nor are any of its organs or functions when rightly understood so unworthy as to be looked upon with contempt yet even in the most enlightened homes boys and girls are growing up with utter lack of knowledge which would conduce both to their safety and happiness vice and suffering are the inevitable harvest a child can not be expected to control what it does not understand much is heard of the duty of child to parent but comparatively little of the duty of parent to child particularly in connection with the subjects herein discussed about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works winner of the pulitzer prize in 1995 written in a voice that moves between elegy and prayer the simple truth contains thirty three poems whose aim is to weave a complex tapestry of myth history both public and private family memory and invention in a search for truths so basic and universal they often escape us all excerpt from the simple truth a home book it was one of those weddings too for which we sometimes predict a leisurely repentance love at first sight followed by very brief courtship and then the wedding friends congratulations kisses tears laughter and a supper which they ate no doubt looking shyly at each other and wondering whether it could be possible they were husband and wife was it a dream that had come true or only a dream a drama or that out of which all dramas are made a mirage of sun and mist on the horizon of their life or the essence and substance of realities poor things they were both quite young they did not know much of the world they had lived in and nothing at all of the world they were entering since they first met it had been eden unfallen with the dew of heaven on it did they wonder whether a brief space would find them outside their eden in among the
