five years ago tia fell into obsessive love with a man she could never have married and the father of two boys nathan was unavailable in every way when she became pregnant he disappeared and she gave up her baby for adoption five years ago caroline a dedicated pathologist reluctantly adopted a baby to please her husband she prayed her misgivings would disappear instead she's questioning whether she's cut out for the role of wife and mother five years ago juliette considered her life ideal she had a solid marriage two beautiful young sons and a thriving business then she discovered nathan's affair he promised he'd never stray again and she trusted him but when juliette intercepts a letter to her husband from tia that contains pictures of a child with a deep resemblance to her husband her world crumbles once more how could nathan deny his daughter and if he's kept this a secret from her what else is he hiding desperate for the truth juliette goes in search of the little girl and before long the three women and nathan are on a collision course with consequences that none of them could have predicted riveting and arresting the comfort of lies explores the collateral damage of infidelity and the dark private struggles many of us experience but rarely reveal also loneliness and isolation this is a book about people s lives not their deaths about the hospice patients rather than the hospice it focuses on the comfort given by friends carers and relatives through both face to face relations and increasingly online communication miller asks whether the loneliness and isolation he uncovers is the result of a decline of english patterns of socialising or their continuation this moving and deeply humane book combines warmth and sharp observation with anthropological insight and practical suggestions for the use of media by the hospice it will be of interest not only to students and scholars of anthropology sociology social policy and media and cultural studies but also to healthcare professionals and indeed to anyone who would like to know more about the role of relationships in the final stage of our lives non western colonization orientalism and the comfort women the collective memory of sexual slavery under the japanese imperial military examines the collective memory of sexual slavery under the japanese imperial military in japan over the past seventy five years euphemistically known as the comfort women tens of thousands of young females were forced into sexual servitude for japanese soldiers during the asia pacific war the majority of these women are believed to have been deceitfully or forcibly taken from korea a former japanese colony the ways in which sexual slavery has been remembered in japan lies at the root of a long standing diplomatic conflict between japan and south korea and has fueled a memory war among japanese scholars and activists the author argues that korean comfort women have been exoticized in the collective memory similarly to oriental women s presentations by western orientalist this book is a comprehensive analysis of the memory of sexual slavery in japan examining various artifacts produced since the end of the asia pacific war including nonfiction books novels newspaper articles popular and documentary films and a commemorative museum it provides novel insights into a decade old international and domestic controversy
