st birgitta of sweden 1303 1373 canonized 1391 was one of the most charismatic and influential female visionaries of the later middle ages altogether she received some 700 revelations dealing with subjects ranging from meditations on the human condition domestic affairs in sweden and ecclesiastical matters in rome to revelations in praise of the incarnation and devotion to the virgin her revelations collected and ordered by her confessors circulated widely throughout europe and long after her death many eminent individuals including cardinal juan torquemada jean gerson and martin luther read and commented on her writings which influenced the spiritual lives of countless individuals birgitta was also the founder of a new monastic order which still exists today she is the patron saint of sweden and in 2000 was declared with catherine of siena and edith stein co patroness of europe birgitta s revelations present her as a commanding and dauntless visionary who develops a contemplative mysticism that is always interwoven with social engagement and a commitment to the salvation of the world the varied styles of her revelations are dominated by frequent juxtapositions of memorable images and allegories that illustrate her fierce and fertile imagination her sharp powers of observation and understanding and her passionate and receptive storytelling powers this fourth and final volume of the translation of the revelations of st birgitta of sweden comprises the heavenly emperor s book to kings the rule and minor works while the complete collection of birgitta s books called liber caelestis ends with books vii the eighth book also referred to as the heavenly emperor s book to kings was added after her death it was compiled by alfonso of jaén and is prefaced by his own treatise titled the hermit s letter to kings which examines the ways in which revelations are tested and proven to be true visions conferred by the holy spirit this volume also contains the birgittine rule the matins readings intended for the nuns four prayers and a collection of scattered revelations that lie on the periphery of the main corpus of texts the translation is based on the recently completed critical edition of the latin text and promises to be the standard english translation of the revelations for years to come

Getting Involved with God 1898

what is union with christ what role does this theme play in the epistle to the romans does union with christ have an old testament background or did paul create the concept for his own theological purposes these questions will be answered in this exegetical study of romans special attention is given to paul s use of old testament stories in relation to union with christ it will be shown that paul understands union with christ to be the climax of the human story a story of creation and rebellion that includes all people regardless of ethnic or social background those who believe in jesus as the promised messiah experience restoration as they move from union with adam into union with christ united to christ the church finds unity in a new identity as a new people in christ

as modernity gives way to postmodernity we are witnessing the emergence of a post political age concepts and realities that anchored modern politics like nation states community freedom and law find themselves under duress from a pluriform terror simultaneously we are witnessing a turn to religion by continental philosophers who seek resources for re visioning a politics of resistance to this terror this work engages postmodern philosophers such as agamben badiou derrida deleuze hardt negri and zizek seeking to divine both the promise and peril of this pagan plundering of christianity on the way to articulating a christian theopolitical vision that holds out the hope of resisting the terror that looms over us
