interesting and provocative recommended for anyone interested in space policy and national security affairs choice the united states has long exploited earth s orbits to enhance security generate wealth and solidify its position as a world leader america s ambivalence toward military activities in space however has the potential to undermine our future security some perceive space as a place to defend and fight for america s vital interests others whose voices are frequently dominant and manifested in public rhetoric funded defense programs international diplomacy and treaty commitments look upon space as a preserve not to be despoiled by earthly strife after forty years of discussion the debate over america s role in space rages on in light of the steady increase in international satellite activity for commercial and military purposes america s vacillation on this issue could begin to pose a real threat to our national security steven lambakis argues that this policy dysfunction will eventually manifest itself in diminished international political leverage the forfeiture of technological advances and the squandering of valuable financial resources lambakis reviews key political military and business developments in space over the past four decades emphasizing that we should not take our unobstructed and unlimited access to space for granted he identifies potential space threats and policy flaws and proposes steps to meet national security demands for the twenty first century provides a wealth of details on a wide range of factors that contribute to space power air space power journal will trigger public debate generate controversy and add creatively to the policy debate john d stempel author of common sense and foreign policy this summarizes the best and worst of car safety fuel economy and maintenance of 1997 model cars millionaire grace purdue never understood why her three beautiful intelligent granddaughters didn t have a husband every woman needs a good man by her side especially a woman of means so when the publishing empire heiress died she made sure that her granddaughters wouldn t stay single in order for them to get their inheritance they must each fall in love and get married in nine months easy right sheila leslie and regina are wondering if their grandmother took too much medication when she wrote her will if thousands of women across the globe are having a hard time finding true love and a husband what made their grandmother think that they could in less than a year but with a total of 45 million at stake they are determined to shed their singleness or die trying little do they know that love romance deceit and deception run deep because money can get you what you want and a whole lot of what you don t enjoy this entertaining tale as the purdue women each take a different path that they hope will lead to meeting the love of their lives at the altar
