European factories and the more frequent encounters with primitive others in the imperial metropolis engendered by interwar imperialism through close readings of the work of early white French jazz critics alongside the essays and poems of intellectuals of color such as the Nardal sisters, Léon Gontran Damas, Léopold Sédar Senghor, and René Ménil. Jazz and machine age imperialism highlights the ways in which the French reception of jazz was bound up with a series of urgent contemporary debates about primitivism, imperialism, anti-imperialism, Black and Creole consciousness, and the effects of American machine age technologies on the minds and bodies of French citizens.
