The Affirmative Action Empire 2001 the soviet union is often characterised as nominally a federation but really an empire liable to break up when individual federal units which were allegedly really subordinate colonial units sought independence this book questions this interpretation revisiting the theory of federation and discussing actual examples of federations such as the united states arguing that many federal unions including the united states are really centralised polities it also discusses the nature of empires nations and how they relate to nation states and empires and the right of secession highlighting the importance of the fact that this was written in to the soviet constitution it examines the attitude of successive soviet leaders towards nationalities and the changing attitudes of nationalists towards the soviet union overall it demonstrates that the soviet attitude to nationalities and federal units was complicated wrestling in a similar way to many other states with difficult questions of how ethno cultural justice can best be delivered in a political unit which is bigger than the national state

The Soviet Union 2012 the purpose of this book is to document from basic Soviet sources the development of Soviet military doctrine and its impact upon the Soviet armed forces Soviet military doctrine is defined as the military policy of the Communist Party in one way or another this policy affects the lives of all of us as a possible threat to free institutions and political processes as well as to our economic life and well being generally we approach Soviet military policy in terms of military balances and weapons comparisons in the number of men under arms the speed of aircraft of the soviet bloc versus that of nato aircraft the number of ballistic missiles and their throw weights studying such balances is of critical importance in defining to some degree existing forces but it is only through a deep and thorough study of the military policy of the communist party which translates directly into military doctrine that we can obtain the background that might aid in negotiating with the soviets on arms control matters or in making decisions that will enable those nations outside of the soviet bloc to deter future kremlin military moves
