ginter focuses on the years 1780 to 1832 a period for which many land tax records survive and precisely when modern forms of political organization began to emerge and when industrialization and enclosure are thought to have altered the fabric of society and the economy through an examination of more than 5 000 parishes in fifteen historical counties approximately one third of england he shows that inequalities in the burden of national taxation were far greater than anyone has estimated having researched both local and national taxation procedures he reveals that on the eve of the nineteenth century revolution in government the tenantry and yeomanry were administratively far more independent of parliamentary statute and of their local gentry and magistracy than has previously been suggested drawing on evidence from the three ridings of yorkshire he discloses other problems associated with the land tax duplicates while ginter argues that the land tax duplicates are wholly inadequate for the study of the fortunes of the small yeoman and that the literature on this subject must be fundamentally reconsidered he reveals a method which can reliably exploit the land tax duplicates as a systemic documentation he contends that the full potential for studies based centrally on the land tax has scarcely begun to be explored papers delivered at the first annual mackie symposium for historical study of scotland s overseas links held at the university of aberdeen in september 1987 popular mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world whether it s practical diy home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science pm is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle popular mechanics inspires instructs and influences readers to help them master the modern world whether it s practical diy home improvement tips gadgets and digital technology information on the newest cars or the latest breakthroughs in science pm is the ultimate guide to our high tech lifestyle vols 1 9 contain cases from 1756 to 1878 vol 10 includes cases in v 1 9 overruled or reversed in decisions and reported 1878 1883 vol 11 contains the same for cases reported 1883 to 1886 the lloyd s register of yachts was first issued in 1878 and was issued annually until 1980 except during the years 1916 18 and 1940 46 two supplements containing additions and corrections were also issued annually the register contains the names details and characters of yachts classed by the society together with the particulars of other yachts which are considered to be of interest illustrates plates of the flags of yacht and sailing clubs together with a list of club officers an illustrated list of the distinguishing flags of yachtsmen a list of the names and addresses of yacht owners and much other information for more information on the lloyd s register of yachts please click here hec.lrfoundation.org.uk/archive/library/lloyds_register_of_yachts_online peter dickson s important study of the origins and development of the system of public borrowing which enabled great britain to emerge as a world power in the eighteenth century has long been out of print the present print on demand volume reprints the book in the 1993 version published by gregg revivals which made significant alterations to the 1967 original these included a new introduction reviewing recent work and in particular 33 pages of detailed annotations and corrections which taken together justified its status as a second edition the lloyd s register of yachts was first issued in 1878 and was issued annually until 1980 except during the years 1916 18 and 1940 46 two supplements containing additions and corrections were also issued annually the register contains the names details and characters of yachts classed by the society together with the particulars of other yachts which are considered to be of interest illustrates plates of the flags of yacht and sailing clubs together with a list of club officers an illustrated list of the distinguishing flags of yachtsmen a list of the names and addresses of yacht owners and much other information for more information on the lloyd s register of yachts please click here hec.lrfoundation.org.uk/archive/library/lloyds_register_of_yachts_online
