i find the menu that appears when you press the abs button quite confusing and very unclear whether you are turning things off or on however there are two warning lights that are supposed to go out once you are moving getting rid of abs on an 02 r1150gs bmwsporttouring Dec 08 2022 as part of ever increasing paranoia over things going wrong on my 02 gs with 109k miles i'm thinking about replacing the brake lines with a set of steel braided lines i've never really liked the abs so i m thinking about getting rid of it at the same time i have a couple of questions
