order in today s world is fraught with difficulties as was the transition from an agricultural to an industrial order in an earlier era within this framework we can observe the increasing fragmentation of the social order today which tends to lead people away from community and a common purpose more often bringing conflict and disunity still countervailing social forces are also at work providing some stability some shelter in a sea of change ever more societies are faced with the rapid and transformative power of information technology which helps propel separate groups of people into a global entity this introduction to the social sciences shows what the authors have learned from such disciplines as anthropology geography history sociology psychology political science and economics and how to apply social science approaches to an ever faster tempo of change the authors cover family life interaction with others racial and ethnic diversity education religion population environment and many other topics analyzed in a student friendly approach new to this edition the integration and flow of the text has been improved for better student comprehension astrophysics and their potential implications for society updated statistics throughout the book deals with the concept of heavy work investment hwi recently initiated by snir and harpaz since its introduction the interest in the general hwi model has increased considerably the book illustrates the development of hwi conceptualization theory and research it deals with the foremost hwi subtype of workaholism however it also compares workaholism as a negative hwi subtype with work devotion passion engagement as a positive hwi subtype most importantly it addresses hwi in general including its possible situational subtypes in view of snir and harpaz s claim that the study of situational heavy work investors is relatively scarce this certainly constitutes a promising step in the right direction finally it deals with timely and important topics examined by prominent international researchers on heavy work investment and such issues as personality factors of workaholism work life
