and for the history of translation to confront and interrogate each other in their core disciplinary practices which promote national political and colonial agendas masked as neutrality surveying a variety of texts from 1250 to 1500 including crusade treatises and travel writings accounts of pilgrims and spies chronicles and romances in both prose and traversing an impressive range of languages including latin middle french german italian and spanish stahuliak asks both medievalists and translation studies scholars to reconsider their assumptions and methods as a way to reconstruct a
