few technological achievements are as impressive as the ability to see our own planet from outer space the beautiful sphere suspended against the black void of space makes plain the bond that the billions of us on earth have in common this global consciousness inspires space travellers who then provide emotional and spiritual observations their views from outer space awaken them to a grand realization that all who share our planet make up a single community they think this viewpoint will help unite the nations of the world in order to build a peaceful future for the present generation and the ones that follow many poets philosophers and writers have criticized the artificial borders that separate people preoccupied with the notion of nationhood despite the visions and hopes of astronauts poets writers and visionaries the reality is that nations are continuously at war with one another and poverty and hunger prevail in many places throughout the world including the united states so far no astronaut arriving back on earth with this new social consciousness has proposed to transcend the world's limitations with a world where no national boundaries exist each remains loyal to his/her particular nation state and doesn't venture beyond patriotism my country right or wrong because doing so may risk their positions most problems we face in the world today are of our own making we must accept that the future depends upon us interventions by mythical or divine characters in white robes descending from the clouds or by visitors from other worlds are illusions that cannot solve the problems of our modern world the future of the world is our responsibility and depends upon decisions we make today we are our own salvation or damnation the shape and solutions of the future depend totally on the collective effort of all people working together should we pay children to read books or to get good grades should we allow corporations to pay for the right to pollute the atmosphere is it ethical to pay people to test risky new drugs or to donate their organs what about hiring mercenaries to fight our wars auctioning admission to elite universities selling citizenship to immigrants willing to pay in what money can t buy michael j sandel takes on one of the biggest ethical questions of our time is there something wrong with a world in which everything is for sale if so how can we prevent market values from reaching into spheres of life where they don t belong what are the moral limits of markets in recent decades market values have crowded out nonmarket norms in almost every aspect of life medicine education government law art sports even family life and personal relations without quite realizing it sandel argues we have drifted from having a market economy to being a market society is this where we want to be in his new york times bestseller justice sandel showed himself to be a master at illuminating with clarity and verve the hard moral questions we confront in our everyday lives now in what money can t buy he provokes an essential discussion that we in our market driven age need to have what is the proper role of markets in a democratic society and how can we protect the moral and civic goods that markets don t honor and that money can t buy

about the book negativity cannot buy happiness be strong be happy it is very unique is a very interesting and unique book specially written for those who are very negative shaky and weak in their character and who always intend to live a negative life it is said that worries and negative thinking are purely our own matter though it has got something to do with our external circumstances but there are certainly some positive factors within us that keep us happy and there is something negative within us also which keep us unhappy happy living through positive and good thoughts is nothing more than that of living a normal life free from undue pressures problems and tensions we must therefore forget our worries and negativities and enjoy our lives happily if we want to live a good and happy life then we need to get rid of the negativity within us which makes us unhappy negative approach always complicates the problems and increases unhappiness nearly four decades ago dilip hiro s inside india today banned by indira gandhi s government was acclaimed by the guardian as simply the best book on india now hiro returns to his native country to chronicle the impact of the dramatic economic liberalization that began in 1991 which ushered india into the era of globalization hiro describes how india has been reengineered not only in its economy but also in its politics and cultural mores places such as gurgaon and noida on the outskirts of delhi have been transformed from nondescript towns into forests of expensive high rise residential and commercial properties businessmen in bollywood movies once portrayed as villains are now often the heroes the marginal right wing hindu militants of the past now rule the nominally secular nation with prime minister narendra modi as their avatar one whose electoral victory was funded by big business hiro provides a gripping account of the role played by indians who have settled in the united states and britain since 1991 in boosting india s gdp but he also highlights the negatives the exponential growth in sleaze in the public and private sectors the impoverishment of farmers and the rise in urban slums a masterful panorama the age of aspiration covers the whole social spectrum of indians at home and abroad
