the tell tale heart is a short story by edgar allan poe first published in 1843 it is told by an unnamed narrator who endeavors to convince the reader of his sanity while describing a murder he committed the victim was an old man with a blind vulture eye as the narrator calls it the murder is carefully calculated and the murderer hides the body by dismembering it and hiding it under the floorboards ultimately the narrator s quilt manifests itself in an auditory hallucination the narrator hears the man's heart still beating under the floorboards it is unclear what relationship if any the old man and his murderer share the narrator denies having any feelings of hatred or resentment for the man he tells us i loved the old man he had never wronged me he had never given me insult he also denies the assumption that he killed for greed object there was none for his gold i had no desire it has been suggested that the old man is a father figure the narrator s landlord or that the narrator works for the old man as a servant and that perhaps his vulture eye represents some sort of veiled secret or power the ambiguity and lack of details about the two main characters stand in stark contrast to the specific plot details leading up to the murder the story was first published in james russell lowell s the pioneer in january 1843 the tell tale heart is widely considered a classic of the
