death comes to all humans but how death is managed symbolised and experienced varies widely not only between individuals but also between groups what then shapes how a society manages death dying and bereavement today are all modern countries similar how important are culture the physical environment national histories national laws and institutions and globalization this is the first book to look at how all these different factors shape death and dying in the modern world written by an internationally renowned scholar in death studies and drawing on examples from around the world including the uk usa china and japan the netherlands scandinavia and eastern europe this book investigates how key factors such as money communication technologies economic in security risk the family religion and war interact in complex ways to shape people s experiences of dying and grief essential reading for students researchers and professionals across sociology anthropology social work and healthcare and for anyone who wants to understand how countries around the world manage death and dying

Existential Media

2022-06-14

tied to the profundity of life and death media are and have always been existential yet as they are deeply embedded in the lifeworld on both individual and global scales they currently capitalize on human existence seemingly without limit while being mythologized as boundless harbingers of the future and as solutions to the predicaments of a world now poised on the edge in this situation it is imperative to move beyond either the habitual or the sublime to recognize that media are in fact of limits situated both in the middle of our lives and at the limit they constitute the building blocks and brinks of being in order to remedy the existential deficit in the field in existential media amanda lagerkvist revisits existential philosophy through a reappraisal of karl jaspers philosophy and of his concept of the limit situation those ultimate moments in life of loss crisis and guilt which we are called upon to seize introducing the field of existential media studies in conversation with disability studies the new materialism and the environmental humanities the book offers a media theory of the limit situation which brings limits in all their shapes and forms onto the radar when we interrogate media lagerkvist argues that the present age of deep techno cultural saturation and of escalating calamitous and interrelated crises is a digital limit situation in which there are profound stakes which heighten existential uncertainty vulnerability as well as potential fecundity placing the mourner the coexist at the center of media studies by entering into the slow fields of mourning commemorating and speaking to the dead in the online environment she brings out that existential media ambivalently offer metric parameters caring lifelines and transcendent experiences which ultimately display post interactive modes of being digital in slowness silence and waiting the book ultimately calls forth a different ethos which powerfully challenges ideals of limitlessness quantification and speed and seeks out alternate intellectual and ethical coordinates for reclaiming imagining and anticipating a responsible future with existential media

The Law and the Dead

2016-04-14

the fate of the dead is a compelling and emotive subject which also raises increasingly complex legal questions this book focuses on the substantive laws around disposal of the recently deceased and associated issues around their post mortem fate it looks primarily at the laws in england and wales but also offers a comparative approach drawing heavily on material from other common law jurisdictions including australia new zealand canada and the united states the book provides an in depth contextual and comparative analysis of the substantive laws and policy issues around corpse disposal exhumation and the posthumous treatment of the dead including commemoration topics covered include the legal frameworks around burial cremation and other disposal methods the hierarchy of persons who have a legal duty to dispose of the dead and who are entitled to possession of the deceased's remains offences against the dead family burial disputes and the legal status of burial instructions the posthumous use of donated bodily material and the rules around disinterment and creating an appropriate memorial a key theme of the book will be to look at the manner in which conflicts involving the dead are becoming increasingly common in secular multi cultural societies where the traditional nuclear family model is no longer the norm and how such legal contests are resolved by courts as the first comprehensive survey of the laws in this area for decades this book will be of use to academics lawyers and judges adjudicating on issues around the fate of the dead as well as the death industry and funeral service providers

Leisure and Death

this anthropological study examines the relationship between leisure and death specifically how leisure practices are used to meditate upon and mediate life considering travelers who seek enjoyment but encounter death and dying tourists who accidentally face their own mortality while vacationing those who intentionally seek out pleasure activities that pertain to mortality and risk and those who use everyday leisure practices like social media or dogwalking to cope with death leisure and death delves into one of the most provocative subsets of contemporary cultural anthropology these nuanced and well developed ethnographic case studies deal with different and distinct examples of the intertwining of leisure and death they challenge established conceptions of leisure and rethink the associations attached to the prospect of death chapters testify to encounters with death on a personal and scholarly level exploring for example the cliffs of moher as not only one of the most popular tourist destinations in ireland but one of the most well known suicide destinations as well and the estimated 30 million active posthumous facebook profiles being repurposed through proxy users and transformed by continued engagement with the living from the respectful to the fascinated from the macabre to the morbid contributors consider how people deliberately or unexpectedly negotiate the borderlands of the living an engaging timely book that explores how spaces of death can be transformed into spaces of leisure leisure and death makes a significant contribution to the burgeoning interdisciplinary literature on leisure studies and dark tourism this book will appeal to students scholars and laypeople interested in tourism studies death studies cultural studies heritage studies anthropology sociology and marketing contributors kathleen m adams michael arnold jane desmond keith egan maribeth erb james fernandez martin gibbs rachel horner brackett shingo iitaka tamara kohn patrick laviolette ruth mcmanus james meese bjorn nansen stravoula pipyrrou hannah rumble cyril schaffer

Rockstar Games and American History

Everyone in This Room Will Someday Be Dead

2021-07-08

in one of us will be dead by morning david moody returns to the world of his hater trilogy with a new fast paced and wonderfully dark story about humanity s fight for survival in the face of the impending apocalypse the fewer left alive the higher the stakes kill the others before one of them kills you fourteen people are trapped on skek a barren island in the middle of the north sea somewhere between the coasts of the uk and denmark over the years this place has served many purposes a fishing settlement a military outpost a scientific base but one by one its inhabitants have abandoned its inhospitable shores today it s home to hazleton adventure experiences an extreme sports company specializing in corporate team building events life there is fragile and tough one slip is all it takes a momentary lapse leads to a tragic accident but when the body count quickly starts to rise questions are inevitably asked are the deaths coincidental or something else entirely those people you thought you knew can you really trust them is the person standing next to you a killer will you be their next victim a horrific discovery changes everything and a trickle of rumors becomes a tsunami of fear is this the beginning of the end of everything or a situation constructed by the mass hysteria of a handful of desperate and terrified people
