APA 2020-2021 in the text when you have paraphrased an edited book chapter cite the author(s) of the chapter and the year of publication of the book as shown in the following examples: parenthetical citation of a paraphrase from an edited book chapter: (Fountain, 2019) narrative citation of a paraphrase from an edited book chapter: Fountain (2019) chapter in an edited book: (Fountain, 2019) APA style manuals in the publication manual section 10.3 and the concise guide section 10.3 this guidance has been revised from the 6th edition. Write the word in and the initials and last name not inverted of each editor: use ed for one editor or eds for multiple editors; provide the title of the book in which the chapter appears; capitalize only the first letter of the title. Examples: (Fountain, 2018) in a reference to a whole book: cite the edition and volume numbers separated by a comma but do not cite a page range. Here are some templates for citing print versions of books that include edition and volume numbers: chapter in an edited book: author(s) of chapter, year, title of chapter; only reference a chapter if it has individual authors for each chapter in the book; use book examples if there are not chapter authors: author(s) of chapter, family name and initials, year, title of chapter; in editor(s) initial(s) and family name of book: ed(s), year, title of book. An edited book is a book where the chapters have been written by different authors and then collated or put together by an editor; the book could be a collection of essays or journal articles or chapters written specifically for the book. Citing a book chapter: how to create an APA 7th edition reference for a book chapter: author, date, title, source, edited book information, source URL, author(s) name of group. The edition is added by adding the number and the abbreviation for edition which is ed, add a period and comma after ed, then add the page numbers of the chapter which are preceded by the abbreviation for pages which is pp. Chapter in edited book: below you will find guidance and examples of how to set out a reference to a chapter in an edited book in the body of your work and in the reference list at the end. Author(s) name, year, title of chapter, in editor(s) name, title of book, publisher name, DOI/URL or xxxx for example: chapter in an edited book with DOI: Fredricks, J., McCloskey, (2019) citing a chapter from an edited book when citing a particular chapter from a book containing texts by various authors: e.g. a collection of essays: begin the citation with the author of the chapter and mention the book's editor's (APA 2024, 5, 14). Book chapters with separate authors use this format when referencing and citing a chapter from an edited book where the chapters have different authors; if using more than one chapter from the edited book, treat each chapter as a separate reference and citation (APA 2011, 10, 31). To cite a book chapter in APA style, you need to have basic information including the author's, publication year, chapter title, editor's, and publisher. The templates for in-text citations and reference list entries of a book chapter with one author and one editor, along with examples, are given below.

Chapter of a book: cite a specific chapter of a book with separately authored chapters; use the form for citing a whole book if all chapters are by the same author(s) or if you want to cite the whole collection; use other forms to find it; write it; cite it. The Chicago Manual of Style Online is the venerable, time-tested guide to style, usage, and grammar in an accessible online format. It is the indispensable reference for writers, editors, proofreaders, indexers, copywriters, designers, and publishers, informing the editorial canon with sound, definitive advice. Line: 49,800.
