2003 קרית ספר the first night of pesah outside of israel the first two nights is known as lel haseder the word seder refers to the orderly progression of fifteen steps that begins with kadash sanctification of the day over wine urhats washing the hands without a blessing karpas eating less than a kazayit of this vegetable etc and culminates with nirtsah our prayer that after all the spiritual heights attained at the seder we request to find favor in hashem s eyes the word seder

also hints to the fact that this is a different kind of progression

2014-05 tu b shvat is the new year for the trees as in all other points in the jewish calendar tu b shvat offers a unique opportunity for insight into living and personal growth throughout the centuries kabbalists have used the tree as a metaphor to understand god's relationship to the spiritual and physical worlds moshe chaim lutsatto in his 18th century classic the way of god teaches that the higher spiritual realms are roots that ultimately manifest their influence through branches and leaves in the lower realms in the 16th century the kabbalists of tzfat compiled a tu b shvat seder somewhat similar to the seder for passover it involves enjoying the fruits of the tree particularly those native to the land of israel and discusses philosophical and kabbalistic concepts associated with the day among other things the seder is a great way to appreciate the bounty that we so often take for granted and to develop a good and generous eye for the world around us the seder presented here is based primarily on the kabbalistic work hemdat yamim later published separately under the title pri eitz hadar
