life by becoming a more skillful and engaged reader of literature we are what we read according to robert diyanni reading may delight us or move us we may read for instruction or inspiration but more than this in reading we discover ourselves we gain access to the lives of others explore the limitless possibilities of human existence develop our understanding of the world around us and find respite from the hectic demands of everyday life in you are what you read diyanni provides a practical guide that shows how we can increase the benefits and pleasures of literature by becoming more skillful and engaged readers diyanni suggests that we attend first to what authors say and the way in which they say it rather than rushing to decide what they mean he considers the various forms of literature from the essay to the novel the short story to the poem demonstrating rewarding approaches to each in sample readings of classic works through a series of illuminating oppositions he explores the paradoxical pleasures of reading solitary versus social reading submitting to or resisting the author reading inwardly or outwardly and more diyanni closes with nine recommended reading
