in this important book nicholas hartlep and daniel scott s detailed analyses on both visual and historical representations of asian americans in textbooks and teacher manuals used in our elementary and secondary schools poignantly tell us that generations of children are growing up being fed this single story about asian americans as hartlep and scott write asian americans have once again been constructed as the good minority that can succeed on their own and be used as a political instrument to shame the blacks for their underachievement and their fight for equality over and over again the media has been telling a single story about asian americans to the public for the past fifty years the consequence of this fabricated story is that it discourages others even asian americans themselves from believing in the validity of their struggles linshi 2014 p 1

in quest of a vital protestant center probes the relationship between scripture and culture in twentieth century us theology and biblical studies it points to the necessity of turning to what karl barth has referred to as the strange new world within the bible for any revitalization of mainline protestantism in the tradition of the protestant reformers in critical dialogue with serious evangelical theology the study includes a historical overview underlying what demetrio refers to as the fundamentalist modernist great divide which continues to resonate powerfully in contemporary us protestant thought and culture demetrio offers an in depth exploration of four representative twentieth century protestant theologians and biblical scholars spanning from the conservative evangelical theology of j i packer to the postliberal dialectical theology of walter brueggemann the book includes a chapter on the neo orthodox legacy as a mediating resource in bringing evangelical and postliberal theology into dialogue with the core issues of theology biblical hermeneutics and religious culture demetrio concludes with a critically empathetic review of the postliberal dialectical theology of douglas j hall and the evangelical narrative theology of richard lints in linking evangelical postliberal and neo orthodox theology to a common search for a vital protestant center this book will facilitate fruitful dialogue among divergent schools of protestant thought and culture
